

Wands

The elementary entities for Wands are Salamanders. They are the red figures on each card and they transmit events of actions. They are the characters that burn for actions from a little spark to an inferno. These are the element of fire astrology, represented by the star signs of Aries, Leo and Sagittarius. And the totems are more the wild untamed animals, for an example from Africa.

Ace of Wands - Inspiration.

Meaning:

This card indicates that something new is created. A new strong (masculine) power that starts a new process. There is strength, a force and energy in this card, the will to get thing started- Action.

Reversed

Indicate that you now lose your power and motivation, you don't even believe in yourself

Color - Red

Red indicates on an elemental force, a force that pushed you ahead. Red gives power but it also takes power. Red is in your roots, in your genetic inherits and patterns. Red is for your survival. The red gives a strong will and a brute force. Motivation. An inner will and lust. Powerfulness, creation. Safeness, stillness, and irritation, anger and aggression. This is a color that indicates on activity, will of life and ambition. Red is also the color that can show on an outgoing force maybe in the shape of frustration. With red vibration you have a strong impulse and lust to change things around you so that it suites you. With red in your aura you're in move, activated to act, just look up, the energy is so strong that you can explode, try to take the lesson from this color and review what irritates you. Let the energy of red has it form and don't put it away. Red is dynamic, a strong power and also a strong ego with a great generosity.

Astrology

1st decade of Aries

Rhino as totem

Indicate that you have an inner power and conviction and when your instinct tells you to act, then you act without looking what is in front of you, you trust what you hear, see and feel. You're not very quick but effective, totally brutally in your performance. Nothing can stop you when you once have decided to act, it's better not to be in the way. You will attack if it's necessary but you enjoy life the most when you just can be in movement like you wish.

2 of Wands - Ambition.

Meaning

This card indicates that you will continue with things that have been started. You're ready to expand and to realize- You stand firm and meet up with changes.

Reversed

You can have difficulties to get going about the things you started. You probably had a great idea and then it became nothing more, there is no ground in your plans.

Color- Red/Orange

Red and orange together indicate that the will has got also a driving force, in that a strong lust to realize your goals, a lot more of action and motivation. You listen to yourself, a lot of influence and a will to get going. It's easy for you to get involved and committed. This colors indicate on speed and action, plans and longing, intense moves and quick response. The red gives power and the orange realize the power and together they create one of the most intense energies that give opportunities to development. With these colors you can be strong in your lust, act in passion and lust instead of common sense. You can be intense with a lack of patience and put you interest as the most important, the things that you have engagement to regardless of time, place and space.

Astrology

2nd decade of Aries

Skunk as totem

Indicate that you're quite without any problems thanks to your ability to know your inner strength. You do have some unexpected talents if it's needed, and others don't rush into your space without any notice first. You like being alone and with others that know your demands. But you can also withdraw others just by your scent. Just be careful that you don't take on others in excitement that they're being excited by your strong charisma. You're strong and you have integrity, others just get close if they deserve it. You know who you are and you enjoy development by your own.

3 of Wands - Impulse

Meaning

This card indicate that something new or an extra opportunity suddenly is on its way. You can feel a new inner strength and acting in the possibilities that are before you, you dare to believe in your ideas and is definitely outside your box in all your acting.

Reversed

You can have difficulties to manage new experiences, it just is too much. You can also rewind yourself out of the things that are going in just because you suddenly feel afraid. You may feel that you have lost your support.

Color - Red/Yellow

The color combination of red and yellow indicate on ideas that is started and gets a lot of energy with a strong ambition. You do know what you want and how it will be done. You have found your ground and get a lot to work with safeness and structure. You want a lot and can become too energetic and in that create a feeling of desolation. This combination indicates on force and impulses that can take control over most anything with its strong will and assertiveness. The red energy gives power and the yellow the will and the independence and together it will just be a strong will that needs to achieve whatever. You can be strong willed, focused and very aware of your power and your abilities. But you can have a lack of patience and be too impulsive in the things you want to succeed. You can have problems to stop and reflect over your choices and your actions.

Astrology

3rd decade of Aries.

Camel as totem

Indicate that you're a survivor that always has some extra resource to take forth. In a big need to use and change energy and refill again. Impatient but stubborn when it's needed. You have a lot of stamina, you're tough and motivated in the things you act in and you do act with a good plan. You like to be alone even if you're surrounded by others. Stubborn and persistent as no one else and can make the most awkward turnovers if it doesn't suite you.

4 of Wands - Contentment

Meaning:

This card indicates on togetherness, a goal that is common that will be accomplished. You can celebrate and take it easy, the work you have put down is now about to give you the reward.

Reversed

You will be left alone in a project that you planned with others, you will lose support and assets, and you had a bad planning from the beginning.

Color -Orange

Orange indicate on the joy of creation, lust and passion. And the strong desires, the expected joy and spontaneity and the consciousness about yourself. This color indicates on a strong lust, engagement and that you know what you want. Here is the interest in others and a longing to develop more common activities but at your demands. You're very secure and certain about yourself. You have the lust and the longing as strong qualities and you realize your goals. With orange in your aura you're a daredevil, you give it all, totally engagement and you just give it all in everything that comes your way that you feel to experience. You have an inner motivation that needs to be fulfilled by action. You can also be fixed with pleasure, both sex and food, or anything else that gives you satisfaction.

Astrology

1st decade of Leo.

Elephant as totem

Show that you're strong inside and in your beliefs and that makes you even stronger in every movement. You hear a lot, your sense of hearing is your strongest one. You get your information from the things you hear, but also through all the things that you smell and isn't it so that you most often get your trunk in deep water. You care about your closest ones and you see it as your responsibility to take care of them. You make a ring around the ones you love and no one else gets inside. You take it nice and slow in life, and you're more invisible than some would think, but you're always there for the one that needs you, them who deserve by their honesty your full attention. You take each moment as it comes, enjoying life with others; you don't like stress and when others run to fast.

5 of Wands - Strife

Meaning

This card indicates on a situation of stress were you lose all control. Nothing will be as planned. It can start a violent turbulence inside you, while others around you hardly recognize what's happened to you.

Reversed

A relief for the moment, all depending on the easy way out that you have chosen. You don't want to see the problem or get help to get further.

Color: Orange/ Yellow

This combination of yellow and orange indicate on new ideas that create with a strong ambition. You know what you want and how to create it. You have found a basic level. You can get a lot of things working with security and structure. You want so much but can be too energetic. This indicates that you have a good ground at the moment with a strong power to carry through with a powerful determination. You're focused, intense, aware and impatient in a delightful mix. The orange creates and want to experience and the yellow needs to make structure, to be seen and confirmed and combined it will be too much action and too little done, it's all about will and not about power.

Astrology

2nd decade of Leo

Antelope as totem

Indicate on an intelligence, proficiency, purposefulness energy. The seeking of balance and both has the strength and acts quickly. To live with and to live out. To enjoy every moment and take care of the opportunities, and restriction - What is that? You're quick and steady, but maybe you're in need of others to find your safeness. You give it all to them you believe in and are there always when needed.

6 of Wands - Victory

Meaning

This card indicates on peace and harmony, that you have reached your goals, you have made it to the things you wanted to achieve. You have a good plan and are certain in your actions.

Reversed

You can easy be stressed up about nothing and in that you put the problems in front of others. You're afraid of not getting your part, or be a part of the plans. You don't like to take responsibility, having a hard time to see your own part in the wholeness.

Color - Orange/Green

This combination of orange and green indicate on power engagement and in that stillness, en harmony built by security. You're goal oriented, and you convince by your way of being, you know how you can get any project up and running and get all that are involved to take their part and responsibility with joy and happiness. You have an inner drive mixed with an enormous portion of patience and a trust that all that you want to do will be so. The orange energy wants to create, have a social network and has also a hot temper. The green is stillness within, harmonious and with the orange it makes some impatience but in the same way also an enormous patience and a lust to make others happy. You have the intensity and the joy in everything you do, you just throw yourself into a project with a conviction that you're strong enough to solve any problems or situations that can be. Happy, positive and incredible optimistic, you want it all now and also to share, to make others happy over what is made is your happiness.

Astrology

3th decade of Leo

Giraffe as totem

Indicate that you need to learn to look at the things that are in front of you, with another perspective things will look different and if you see it from above mostly everything will be smaller than it is and you can became bigger than you actually is. One step can take you far, you just have to take a look at what direction it looks the best. The giraffe strengthen your seeing and makes you watch more than just in front of you and to look up and down to get a whole picture. You need to have visions and have the gut to look at all directions to widen your perspectives.

7 of Wands - Stamina

Meaning

This card indicates on determination. The will to make decisions. A will to be able to do anything that you want and to take responsibility for your actions. Wayward in all that you think will give you favors and that even sometime without checking up facts in the matter. You know what you want and you get it your way.

Reversed

Self-righteousness that will be pulling you backwards. You can be lost in your own values. Loses your focus and only pay attention to the things that you think will be best for you, stubborn to the last breathe.

Color - Yellow/Lilac

The yellow and the lilac has all within that has to do with dreams and visions about the future. You can be strong in your conviction, maybe even fanatical? You have the will to grow, to take control, to be able to put forward whatever you wish; you have the connection between the common life and your spiritual goal and are open for new experiences. Easy to learn and open for new areas in life, without any prejudices or preconceived thoughts if it suits your own goals of course. You're strong and bullheaded but also a dreamer, you want so much but need more feet on the ground if you want to achieve your desires. And the things you want today could be something totally different tomorrow, you can have difficulties to stay in your actions, you have more in your mind and moving forward, seeking stimulus all the time. The yellow have the awareness and the lilac the spiritual visions and if they can be joined then all the dreams can come true.

Astrology

1st decade of Sagittarius

Hyena as totem

Indicate that you're clever and tricky, taking your time and take what you need. You have learned to see the advantage in the things that others will not see. You take life with a good laughter and also find another way to the next adventure. This means that you quite uncomplicated, you take the moment as it come, like being around and most with them with the same attitude. You know how to get the best out of anything and see the opportunities even in the things that others toss away. You can feel a little bit awkward sometimes but you just shake loose and invite to a good laughter.

8 of Wands - Communication

Meaning

This card indicates on an event that happens, you get some kind of response, it indicates on the reactions and answers that will come your way in the things you have asked for. It also indicates on message and decisions and all that is coming towards you as an answer. A lot of things will now be put in action.

Reversed

Setbacks and negative messages from your surroundings. Decisions that will be put on hold. Contracts that will be broken. Answers that will not come as expected. Trouble with communications and in relations.

Color - Yellow/Green

This combination of colors indicates on a strong will and also humbleness, you're strong in your belief but also so aware of the mixed energies and the need to get it in balance. You have with this energy a pleasant way of living life; you are perceptive and aware that it's needed a balance between Yin and Yang to get a result. You seek companionship and response in the things that should be done. You have a strong belief but also a feeling, a sensitivity that makes you more open for co operations, a response with others instead of taking your own adventures. Concentrated, open minded, communicative and in the feeling that something has to be done, you need to realize something. The yellow has the energy of will and self esteem and the green the feeling of balance and experience. Together they create blue and show on a co-operation between the energies and now it can be expressed.

Astrology

2nd decade of Sagittarius

Zebra as totem

Indicate that you have the art to make illusions, you know who you are even if others don't always see you as the one you are. You're good at the art of manipulation, you really have the gift to melt in and adapt yourself after the situation. You know which stripe is what and where your stripes are, if others can manage to pick out the right stripes that not your problem. You just get your own illusions, but you can also be rather black and white in your opinion of things, either its up or its down, more vertical than across.

9 of Wands - Passionate

Meaning

This card indicates on a lot of work, but that it is done with ambition and is goal orientated. You know how much is needed from you and you're willing to do all the extra work to reach to the ultimate goal and fulfill your own expectations.

Reversed

You can have some problems to focus, to see things clearly and to concentrate on the things that have to be done. You lose your ambition and your will to give it some extra power.

Color - Yellow/Blue

This combination of the colors of yellow and blue indicate on clear-sightedness, perceptivity and a strong focus on the things that shall be done. Secure, pushing, in action, and now exactly from within what you want and then you make a quick consultation with yourself before you act. And the consultation is to overlook how and not if or when. You have a clear mind and you will move and get what you want and make sure that your plans will be done. You have a will to thing clear, to be aware of yourself and your role and that has the biggest meaning, you're so aware about your value and how it will be strengthen and how you can succeed with your plans. Quick in mind, clever, creative and always find solutions and act by yourself, don't need anyone to do things for you unless its suites you the best. You know your responsibility and have the stamina to end all the things that you have started. With the blue vibration an open attitude, you know your role and make yourself matter and the yellow vibration have the energy of believing in yourself and be awareness. The colors together indicate on a strong personality and a stamina that is extraordinary.

Astrology

3rd decade of Sagittarius

Tiger as totem

Indicate that you instill respect and others rather prefer to go by your side than take a fight. You know what you want and you take it. You have the patience to wait; you're stubborn and aware that you can take whatever you want if you just persist. You're a survivor and take what you need and nothing can stop you so your path is just straight ahead in front of you. But you also have the ability to relax and just take life as it comes and of course in your terms. You know that others look at you with respect and what else?

10 of Wands - Capacity

Meaning

This card indicates on work that has to be done. That you now have to collect all your forces and move on. And you take all your experience with you to start all over again and now with more capacity.

Reversed

You have a firm grip on something that should be relived in another way, you have all the opportunities with you but maybe you're afraid of too much work and engagement from your part.

Color - Yellow/Indigo

This combination has both wisdom and a self respect, a clear knowledge of who you are and what goals you need to fulfill. Focus, take forth your inner force, the stubbornness combined with a strong intuition and then you know what your next move will be. You can do anything to achieve your goals and visions and to reach the wholeness of the things you have created. You have all the dreams, the fantasy and the ideas that are your richness to succeed with all the things you dream about. If you have a vision, or several, you will listen to your intuition and act, maybe step by step but the yellow energy will push you to fulfill and not go into the low energy of fear to fail and lose control. You what so much and have so much to give and in that you need to learn to follow your intuition. The indigo will provide you with fantasy and a lot of thoughts, deep thoughts and spiritual awareness. The indigo know who you are and the yellow trying hard to fulfill, and to balance the fantasy of mind to a logical action.

Astrology

Chiron in fire

Hippopotamus as totem

Indicate that you have a lot of stamina, you're strong and you do exactly as you prefer. You make your way, like it always been and you don't get lost in different crossroads in life, you listen to yourself and you just flow straight ahead as you awareness of doing the same thing over and over again, it worked before and it will work again. You are aware of your own strength, you know what you manage and like to follow routines and be in the balance that you created at first. You don't need changes to feel good, you just flow in your own speed and following the cycle of life.

Page of Wands- Notification

Meaning

Messages are on its way. Something will now be revealed that you can act with and develop further. Notes that give more opportunities and the power to keep on develop. Something will now give energy to create more of the things you like to change.

Reversed

Something will not be as expected; this is also message that things will not be or have to wait. Something will pass you and you will not notice until it is too late.

Color - Red/Black

The color of red indicate on power, strength and determination and a strong will. The black energy indicates on knowledge about everything's energies and a clear sight of everything that is but can also be depressed in its performance. Together they will show on a strong will to survive and to fight for the things that are needed by and for you. You have all the motivation and you need to stay firm and in that try if the ground is stable and you will do that over and over again. You trust yourself and your own truth, you're your own God and act after the experiences that you got, and you can still be open for development but in the same time the energies also indicate that you're not always fit for all the new energies that will be created. You will not find the spiritual safeness at first even if you're prepared to give it all to develop.

Astrology

Capacity of the star signs of Aries, Leo and Sagittarius.

Chimpanzee as totem

Indicate that you're in your spontaneity, hug your neighbor, give some kisses when you're already giving all you got, be present, give treats of your happiness. It's now all new jaunting waiting together with the ones you like to play with. This energy indicates that you don't always think before your acting, you just do what is funny for the moment, a play, ha hug, a jump or a swing in life. Life is like an adventure and you always get someone with you that want to have as much fun as you. Have trust in yourself, everything will be alright, and if not? Then you'll have a bunch of sympathizers around you that love to share adventure or be in something that you want to act with. It's time to be in your spontaneous experience and just take the moment as it comes. You should take life a little bit easier, dump anxiety in all your performances, just be here and there, have fun, for this energy will teach you to be in the now and have fun, laugh, hug and just enjoy life.

Knight of Wands - Innovate

Meaning

This card indicate that something is going to take action, and it's often a quick change. Everything that will get things moving is in this energy, it can be a travelling for work, but it can also be a new working project or job or you can also move. Things will happen and very quick.

Reversed

Break off, loss of motivation, the things that got started is now cancelled or on a hold, other things will happen instead. It can also show on trips that are cancelled or a relocation that will not be done.

Color - Red/White

With red and white energy you can see that you have both power and opportunities. The red energy has the power and the determination, the inner will to fulfill the things that has to be done and the white energy has enlighten and clear-headedness as its energy. Together these energies gives you the power to handle things, to use the light and act but if they not in balance you will get lost in action and feel frustration. You have the force from the ground in the red to the above from the white; it's up to you how you balance and use that force. You're an intense person that know what you can do and you also have the stamina to do it and in that you look forward, make plans and still take responsibility for your actions. You really want to do so much, conquer the world and after that the whole universe.

Astrology

Capacity of the star signs of Aries, Leo and Sagittarius.

Panther as totem

Indicate that you are so far away from the pink panther that someone can be. You got temper, spirit and not so much humor. You take yourself too serious and not even that line is okay for you to accept, because self-revelation isn't your biggest gift and is one of your challenges in your life. You have the authority with you, a strong will and you demand response immediately, you act and the one that doesn't follow or accept creates their own limitation. For limit is something you don't know what it is, you take and make what you need and look seriously on your own role and as the one that should have the last word.

Queen of Wands - Dedication

Meaning

This card is the symbolic for a woman, the working woman that gives the energy to work and responsibility. A woman with leverage and power, that manage alone but also like to keep others going and just have a big engagement in most everything and often starts up projects. She is well-aware and powerful and always manages everything on her own.

Reversed

A woman with no patience, that easy lose control and temper, easy to be irritated and having a hard time to relax and show sympathy for others.

Color - Orange/Black

The orange energy indicates on creativity, impulses, lust, passion and spontaneity, the black energy indicate on knowledge, emptiness and mirrored elemental force. Together they show on a creative process that gives it all to get it all. You have a great intuition, based on a survivor instinct that makes you be aware of danger and foul play and you hit right back directly. If you can express your creativity then you can express your spiritual growth and interest.

Astrology

Capacity of the star signs of Aries, Leo and Sagittarius.

Cougar as totem

Indicate that you have an inner force, you know what you believe, who you're and what you want from life. And you take everything in your own pace totally convinced that you can manage whatever has to be. It also indicates that you're quick to respond, more quick than others maybe expected, but you take your speed under control. You have a strong focus, you know what you want, and have an enormous portion of energy, you never give up, the things you want to realize, you realize quick and with focus. You mind your own business, you know that alone is the strongest power and you trust your own capacity to create what you want. You're also open for companionship, on your terms, and you love to be taken care of as long as it is in your terms and through your trickery you can easy get others to do things for you.

King of Wands - Honor

Meaning

This card indicates on the role of a male that is focused on work and career, authority and liability. The man that has all the answers and the whole world's responsibility on his shoulders. But here is safeness, stability and a secure ground. A steady role, indicate also on a wider global consciousness. It also indicates in bigger decisions that are in a bigger content.

Reversed

A man that is to fixate by his own, he wants to control everything and everyone, he doesn't trust others. He doesn't feel the trust that anyone else can do the things he needs to do. To dominant, don't accept any moves that he hasn't created himself.

Color - Orange/White

Orange indicate on vitality and an appetite for life, the dare to be spontaneous and to enjoy company and in that the development that the white energy pushes for. White indicate on clear minded thoughts, focused energy, a longing and a awoken consciousness and a spiritual experiences. You're impulsive, life loving, spontaneous in the experience and live it all out with fantasy and your dreams all at once. You longing to be more co- creating.

Astrology

Capacity of the star signs of Aries, Leo and Sagittarius.

Gorilla as totem

Indicate that you're strong in yourself and have a good way of unity with your closest nearest and dearest but you always take the biggest responsibilities for all. You have the guts to be yourself and invite to a good laugh or two. But you're also restless and seeking new areas all the time but always with your nearest right behind you. It's common for you to take responsibility and mix it with happiness to a good balance, you give and you receive. You're always present in the things that are most important.

Cups

On the cards for Cups you will find the elementary entities of Water - Undines. They are the green figures on each card that transform a feeling. They are the enmities that are in the movements of what happens and express it all from a little smile to a massive explosion of feelings. Here are all the elements of water in astrology, represented by the star signs of Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces. The totems belong in water.

Ace of Cups -Happiness

Meaning

This card indicates on something new emotionally or with a strong feeling of love that now take place in your life. A new love, a new relationship, eventually it can show on a child entering your life. A positive experience of emotions, a renewed happiness.

Reversed

A disappointment emotional, something that doesn't turn out the way you desired it to be. Feelings that fade away. Unable to love or share your emotions.

Color - Green

The color of green indicate on harmony, togetherness, happiness, joy, truly spontaneity actions, feelings that are without any demands, they just are, as they are in the moment. Here you have the warmth, the calm, the positive expectation, Green is a cool color, calm and still, but also with a lot of going on based upon feelings, and indicate on empathy and kindness and the ability to stay still and await. This can transform to more negative side of the green that is greed, uncertainty, bitterness, jealousy and exploring of others. Right use of the energy indicates that you're safe within, in harmony, take the moment as it comes and trust yourself. You have peace in mind; you know who you are and what you feel. The opposite are that you have demands on yourself to be perfect all the time, to be better than best, you want so much, love the whole world and that the whole world would love you too. You will give and give when the energy is balanced but if you don't stop in time you can find yourself in situations when you don't do anything for another until you're sure that they will do something for you. You're optimistic, loving, caring, nice and calm, gathering everyone around you and want to share all the harmony and happiness that you feel. You are good at relaxing and just be in the feeling.

Astrology

1st decade of Cancer.

Seal as totem

You're one of them all, you take the moment as it comes and can be a little too cool and laid back and that can make others feel stressed, but that doesn't bother you, you just stay the way you are. Even if you're cool you can also be a little restless, you need something to happens, and you wag about and believe that nothing bad ever going to happen to you. It's not that you're blue-eyed (for your not) or that you don't care, it's just that you're in the moment and grab the things that flow your way. You be just were everyone else is, in the middle of all, not depending on the ground, more of the rhythm of companionship.

2 of Cups - Unity

Meaning

This card indicates on tw-oness, love and companionship with the same goals. Mutual exchange and a growing in harmony, a stable relation with exchange.

Reversed

Disappointment, betray, unfaithfulness, something that isn't shared on the same values. Feelings in a relation only from one partner. Loneliness.

Color - Green /Blue

There is a good balance between green and blue from one (blue) outgoing force and in the other acting towards the inner (green). In safety, harmony, togetherness, development. All the opportunities to reach forth and develop in balance with the things around you. Sensitivity that is in total balance. The blue vibration that indicate on security and balance, the outer mirroring to the green vibration of the harmony and to the inner balance. You're open, calm and secure, stable and nice in common. You can express yourself, communicate, mingle and like to be around other people. You don't have the need to be seen or in the center, you want to share what you have with others. You take things as they come; you're an "it-will-always-workout" kind of person that always finds the right connections to reach your evolvment. But you don't seek evolvment, you're pleased as it is, you know it will turn out as it supposed to be in the end.

Astrology

2nd decade in Cancer.

Duck as totem

Indicate that you're a person that take relationships serious, no matter if it's a partner relation and family or friend relation. You're going to be there for you dear ones and you also take it for granted that your dear ones will be there for you. You're doing your best to keep in contact, to stay together and to build on the relationships for the future, generation after generation. You enjoy being in the feeling but still you need your freedoms, qualities that you have from your elements of water and wind, the elements that you feel at home with. The duck is according to Feng Shui the animal that symbolizes a true love affair, family formation and marriage. If you have a pair of ducks (not alive) in your bedroom it will support true love and partnership. If you have ducks on your yard it will support family happiness.

3 of Cups - Celebration

Meaning

This card indicates on happiness and communion. You have reached or will reach a fulfillment, a goal that you have within family and your love in life. To feel happiness and harmony together, to celebrate.

Reversed

Disappointment, conflicts, you being used even cheated on. Feeling disunion and quarrels.

Color -Green/Indigo

The combination of the color green and indigo indicate on harmony and deep insights. The green energy is carrying love and harmony and the indigo on trust, dreams, fantasy and visions. Together its inspiring love. You're a happy person, comfortable from inside, the treats are on you, and you dare to laugh at yourself. You have a romantic side, visions of love and what will come, but can have some trouble to stop and be in common daily life, you escape into fantasy and the world of feelings.

Astrology

3rd decade in Cancer.

Otter as totem

Indicate that you're an easygoing and happy figure and take the moment as it comes and always giving invitation to a play. If life is flounder, ask the otter to let the crazy open-minded child within you come forth, turn around on your back and enjoy that the whole universe is above your head. You have an inner strength from your happiness, dare to share it, dare to be yourself, and don't pay attention to others that likes to control you and say that it has to be in a certain way. Do the things that make you happy.

4 of Cups - Discontent

Meaning

This card indicates on a feeling of too much, that you have reached a level of feelings and don't want any more at the time. You can feel pleased in the feeling that no one can have demands on you but still you can have a feeling of discontent that nothing is happening. No matter what, whatever will happen you will feel this discontent and yet feel pleased, a mixed feeling. Solitude is something that one moment suits you fine and in the next you need people around you and when you got that, you seek solitude again. You can have problems to avoid being present.

Reversed

You can't stand to much emotion and other peoples acting in feelings, you just want to be alone. You have no power to act with feelings, alone and lost.

Color - Green/Purple

This is a color combination that gives a lot of thoughts. The green energy creates balance, harmony and stillness with a desire for love. And the purple energy creates desire for spiritual perfection through inner harmony and external mirroring. You're in harmony, nice but sometimes a little bit too much in to yourself, you have a full time to control all the emotions that are within and trying to get a balance in your contact both with your inner self and others.

Astrology

1st decade in Scorpio

Frog as totem

This means that you're sensitive for energies and it's easy for you to pick them up. Use the frog to let the information pass through you, and take advantage of the things you need and let the rest rinse off. Take benefit of your sensitivity, feel what's around and then let go. Use your power to cleanse and heal others and spaces around. With the frog energy you have the ability to let it all rinse through you and become cleansed. How is your psychic power? With the frog you can look in to the hidden through water, maybe in a bowl with water, in a bath tub, or in a lake. Healing through water, take the frog energy, put your hands or your feet in water and pass through the healing power. This can also be useful to heal and balance the lymph system. This also indicates that you look for your own good, you can adapt to different situations and then let go and move on without any larger effect, you dare to try on new things.

5 of Cups - Disappointment

Meaning

This card indicates on an emotional conflict. You don't know what you want. Mixed emotions, a feeling of loneliness. You seek acknowledgement from several at the same time. You create inner conflicts.

Reversed

A relief for the moment, you don't dare to move on, instead you fall back to old habits and "close" your feelings, afraid of being lonely.

Color - Green/Magenta

Green energy indicate on harmony, emotions, consideration and communion. Magenta has the development from the past, searching and confirmations. Together they indicate on acting's from the feelings, doubts as well as expectations. It indicates that you long for the past or safeness, a harmony that you have had and you do know now that a change must be. Either you stand firm and act with what you got or you try on something new. Your open minded and considerate, aware of your surroundings, act in the things that has to be done even if you get into the feeling more than one time. Afraid to lose the opportunity and not get the confirmation that you wish and expect to get.

Astrology

2nd decade in Scorpio

Scorpio as totem

This indicate that you're brave from your soul; you give it all in all aspects of life and can also be a little mystical. You prefer to live alone, take advantage of the things that passes you, and you react quickly. The dessert that symbolizes the emptiness, the void, indicates that you're alone in the middle of something; to survive you have to follow your instinct. You can have a hot temper and act a little too quickly, you don't stay and wait for some understanding or explanations, and you act directly. One sting and it's over. You live by the motto - No return. It's no doubt that you're quick. You attack when you feel that it's appropriate and acts as it's only you that has all the power.

6 of Cups - Appreciation

Meaning

This card indicates on happy events. Communion with respect, consideration and love. Happiness and harmony with others, especially family members or people that are near and dear to you. Family events that is positive, celebrations and bigger happenings.

Reversed

Disappointments from family and relatives. Difficulties with experiences from childhood. You can have the feeling of being alone, abounded and outwit from communion.

Color - Green/Turquoise

The mix of turquoise and green is a good energy, but at the same time this energy can show that you're lost and afraid. The turquoise exhorts on spiritual development and with the green you need someone else involved. Safe but still insecure. T0eh turquoise wants you to look at where you're going and act by your heart from the green energy. This color combination is a harmonic energy but sometimes life provokes you and wants you to listen to your childhood dreams instead of running around and searching for confirmation from others that you're doing the right things. You're at peace, safe and in harmony and open for development at all times as long that it includes the wholeness that you live in. No matter how you act you still be in changes with yourself, dare to experience the total love and togetherness, just be honest with yourself.

Astrology

3rd decade in Scorpio

Uta as totem

Indicates that you can be a little bit slow in your movements but when it really matters it's hard for others to keep up. You can notice the little things around you that no one else pays attention to. You have a good memory, better than anyone of your kind. Your smart and feel your expectations in your behavior until you decided to act and then you act unexpected, as unexpected as you just turn of the world around you and drift away. You do what suits you.

7 of Cups - Distrust

Meaning

This card indicate that you worrying about yourself. Who am I? What do I want? And how am I supposed to be? You got a lot of worrying and no answers and a lot of feelings to choose from. Your emotions are your driving force and it's a lot of feelings.

Reversed

You're mixed up, can't decide, don't know one thing from another. Trying to get support from your nearest instead of deciding yourself.

Color - Green/Pink

The green color indicate on a safe feeling, happiness, consideration and love and to give and give. The green energy supports all this abilities and that's why they are so vulnerable, and over activated. The pink has equal abilities but more on a spiritual level. You're a very open, emotional person that feels and experiences everything over and over again with a great energy of empathy. You don't miss one frequency of the feeling, you absorb all the experiences, both good and bad and that without separate those before you get in to all that happens, await and philosophize and if you get excited or if others has demands, and then you can always retired into your case.

Astrology

1st decade of Pisces

Turtle as totem

You're stable, safe and secure, take one thing at the time, and have no rush. An inner calm and knowledge that what has been has been and also what will happen and everything has its own time. Indicate that you are a cool person; take the moment as it comes. Taking it easy, relaxes, await and think about it and if you feel pushed or demands from others then you can always rest your case.

8 of Cups - Uncertain

Meaning

This card indicate on emotional relations with your surroundings, and in some of it you can feel pleased and at the same time on the other hand you feel an inner conflict to be together. You have an inner desire for love and to be loved and confirmed.

Reversed

You feel lonely and like an outsider, you can have problems to get the appreciation that you want. You don't have the stamina to care about others. You can feel a disappointment with your feeling.

Color - Pink/Blue

The pink energy indicates on unconditional love, that you're in your heart with your feelings without any demands so ever. The blue energy indicates on communication and self awareness, your part of it all. Together they show on an expressed feeling, openness in your communication but also vulnerability in that. You're open, in your feeling, searching and trying to express what you feel is important for you. You can be too vulnerable in your openness, wait too long to get response and at the same time you can have problem to have patience. You can also experience that no one takes you serious and that you don't get the expected response back.

Astrology

2nd decade in Pisces.

Penguin as totem

Indicate that you're common, happy and a little bit incalculable even if others think that they know how you are and what you are. You have extra energy; you can manage big gatherings of people, like to be in groups and in events that are active as well as you can just stop in the moment and just wait for the right moment for you to move again. The penguin wants to teach you to not take yourself too seriously and in the same way you should see your unique talent. Be flexible and follow the stream, you got the energy and ability to just stop and be in yourself, but you can also throw yourself deep into whatever gives you happiness or you just choose to slide ahead as the one you're.

9 of Cups - (Inner) harmony

Meaning

This card indicates on contentedness, that you're feeling good with yourself, you feel pleased and satisfied with life and yourself. You're enjoying the moment and just feeling good and enjoying your nearest and dearest in joy and harmony since you don't need them to confirm you.

Reversed

You don't like to be alone and you don't like to be with others, you don't have the stamina or will to be happy for anything because you don't like yourself or the things you're doing.

Color - Pink/Indigo

The pink energy is for openness, unconditional love, giving without expecting, inner harmony and spiritual optimism. The indigo energy is for developing, spiritual awareness and an inner balance. Together they will strengthen the aspects to inner communication, an inner happiness and spiritual spontaneity. You're a person with spiritual ambitions to find the divine inside of you. You're desiring harmony and community and to find the strength inside yourself. Your own presence is what grows and you will take more time off for yourself as times goes by.

Astrology

3rd decade of Pisces

Lizard as totem

Indicate that you're a dreamer, one that dares to have visions and like to drift away into your own inner world, but maybe you don't keep your eyes closed for the things happens in reality. You just choose to see it differently. You create magic through your dreams, you can dream and it will be but also remember to see the future in your dreams and to see what the reason to all that is happening is. You're a part of the energy of a reptile with the ability to survive by instinct and understand the rules of the game that is life in all worlds. You have the power to change and get into your dream world to create what you need.

10 of Cups - Harmony

(both 9 and 10 of Cups has the same keyword)

Meaning

This card indicates on a happy family situation. A lot of love and joy. Togetherness in family with strong bonds. Happiness together with others that is close to you. Family project that will succeed.

Reversed

Quarrels and controversies meanings. You can't get along with your nearest and that will affect all that is in it no matter they want it or not. Deceit, false feelings, utilization of feelings.

Color - Pink/Purple

The pink vibration indicate on openness, happiness, spontaneity from your heart, inner joy that spreads outwards, considerations and positive spirit. The purple vibration gives inspiration and a happy and intuitive feeling, the openness and spiritual curious. Together they will create an aura of romance and desire, happiness with expressions of harmony. You're so romantic and so spiritual, happy and joyful. You just slide through life with a smile on your lips and totally convinced that everything is good, so totally perfect. You can have some problems to stop and be with others even if they're close to you. You're in your world of dreams and in that everything is so perfect in totally harmony.

Astrology

Chiron in water element.

Whale as totem

Indicate that you're a person with a huge knowledge, safe inside, psychic abilities that are in balance. Indicate that you have a great awareness; greater than you yourself know and maybe gradually you will react on what you did see, or know would happen. Inside you have all the knowledge, you know, you feel it, you sense what has been, what is and what will be. A strong sense of telepathy and you can communicate with everything and everyone around you, and all this ability is in every cell that is a part of you. But since it's so obvious it's not sure you know or see your whole capacity.

Page of Cups - Joy

Meaning

A positive event coming your way, something that gives you joy. Maybe you don't experience it all at the same time, but you can sense the feeling of the positive energy. An appreciation will enter your way, through gifts, letters or in some other way.

Reversed

Disappointment, expectations that failed. Sadness and confusion. You wait for something that never comes or don't will turn out as you expected it.

Color - Pink/Black

The pink energy indicate on a deep spirituality vibration and openness through dimensions. The black energy indicate on the knowledge on all that is, the knowledge of the whole vibration maybe without reflections of why? Together it will show on a deeper searching of the totally truth, a spiritual openness for developing. You're totally open with your higher self but also limited by all that is around you, one minute up in the blue and one down under the ground. You can easy see what others don't and be very sensitive.

Astrology

Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces abilities.

Dragonfly as totem

Indicate that you're an exciting person that seeking the balance between the most things that you meet, but in that also a developing, and so aware of that we all have or wings to carry. You have the ability to shift color and show up as expected or wanted, but don't forget to look for your own needs. You're a master to create illusions, sometimes so good that you fall for them yourself. But with your ability to get it all in one place and use the resources that is around you, you will have the opportunities to enjoy whatever is or what can be, just grab your wings. You're a little special, you just fly your own way, take whatever comes and don't leave anything for coincidence and you charm your surroundings before you leave, maybe for good. You create magic in others eyes and illusions in your own.

Knight of Cups - Flirtation

Meaning

This indicate on proposal with loving energy. Togetherness with others, shared happiness. Spontaneity, passion and strong overpowering feelings.

Reversed

Betrayals, disappointments, loss of companionship. You can feel exposed and deceived not honest purposes. Jealousy.

Color - Pink/White

this combination of energy from pink and white is so high frequencies that indicate on your spiritual openness and spiritual awareness. The pink vibration indicates on spiritual curiosity and divine love. The ability to see and experience more that is above the common reality. The white energy is expression and exploration of spirituality, together it will be a powerful aspect of spiritual developing that unfortunately don't has so much stable ground but nevertheless more of unfolding. You're open and positive, loving and, in harmony and also in need of confirmation, you just need something to happen that you will be a part of with love and harmony. You still have one foot in the past and that can give you a good communication with spirits and the things that aren't obvious in this dimension. But sometimes you can feel lost and don't know where you belong and you need to let go of what has been, just bring the experience, nothing more.

Astrology

Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces abilities.

Chameleon as totem

Indicate that you can melt in were ever it suits you, you're a master in disguise and to confuse even if it for you just is about your temperament and for others that you just adapt to the circumstances. You can catch what you need in a near distance but you also get the goodies that are behind you or besides you, you really do have control over the situation. Indicate that you have the ability to melt in were ever instead of being unique, and that you really are, you may not see your own greatness and you need to meet like-minded to recognize that you are you.

Queen of Cups - Compassion

Meaning

You act from a strong feeling and sensitive intuition. You have demands that love is what you should have. You feel appreciated and that you're needed. Considerations, tenderness and strong positive feelings.

Reversed

Worries and obstructions, emotional stress from within. You feel demands on your feminine expression. Jealousy and uncontrolled emotional outburst.

Color - Green/Black

The green energy indicate on harmony and love, safeness, peace and calm. The black energy indicates on questioning and a great knowledge about feelings together with the green. Them together can be both strong in a positive way but also be demanding and corrosive from the experience. You're in your truth, listen with your heart for what feels right and act from your feeling, have a brightening intuition and an extra sense that is more open to the esoteric in your surroundings.

Astrology

Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces abilities.

Flamingo as totem

Indicate that you should be aware of who you are, be proud over yourself, take it easy, gathering your nearest and just enjoy life. Life is to enjoy for the moment, all of what is served and in that to be in perfect harmony. You have the ability to dazzle your surroundings; you are shining in your personality and dress tastefully but in your own way. You like to look at your reflection from a higher perspective. Just wade in your own rhythm no matter the admiration.

King of Cups - Considerate

Meaning

Community with others in bigger context. A safe family situation with harmony, love and joy. Secure feelings, and support in actions of love.

Reversed

Jealousy and common disappointment, much of own insecurity. Has lost control, locking from preconceived thinking, can't get in hold. Don't find any security, easy to bitterness and to feel left outside.

Color- Green/White

Green and white energy show on a harmonic balance and an emotional awareness. The green show on harmony and safety. You have an inner stillness and an awareness of the now. The white energy indicates on a global awareness and the insight of every choice and action. Together they will show on expanding awareness, a feeling and sensitivity that gives increased harmony. You're a humble and tactful person that likes to share the love you have to others. Sometimes you can give a little too much and empty your resources just to have it all in relationships. You're a creative person; if you only have your own safety then you can give and give a lot from yourself. You enjoy sharing happiness and love, not only in the common way but also more spiritual.

Astrology

Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces abilities.

Octopus as totem

Indicate that you're strong and independent, you like your own energy and can explode to quickly and also have a strong integrity. You demand respect and you attack if you feel that you don't get it. Hard to get along sometimes with others even if it feels important. You can easy change role after needs, it also indicate that you're multilateral. It's easy for you to float into your own inner world but it's also easy for you to use the power of the ink to get things printed down.

Pentacles

On the cards of Pentacles you can see the element from earth - The Gnomes. They are the yellow figures on every card and they transmit a presence. They are the elements that belong to structure and can be or express all that gets in balance. Here are also the star signs of the element of earth in astrology, represented by the Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn. The totems are the animals that belong to the woods and land of common nature.

Ace of Pentacles - Manifestation

Meaning

This card indicate on a new form for a materialistic ground. A renewed economical situation. A new beginning in finances. A more steady ground from something new, something new to build from.

Reversed

No stability, something gets lost, it's a retrograde. A loss in economy, you lose your safeties in your common life.

Color - Yellow

The yellow vibration indicate on a strong will, the strongest of them all. Firmness, self awareness, self esteem, self confidence and goal oriented. Safeties, stubbornness and control over yourself. This indicates that you take responsibility for your acting and have a clear focused mind. You're a survivor and like to have it your way. Can have some addiction for control and you act with it all in your own power. Firm and sure, unchangeable. The yellow has to stand on it on two legs, in the middle of it all and shine as the sun you are. You have a strong awareness about who you are and who you can be.

Astrology

1st decade of Taurus.

Badger as totem

You're strong, firm, stubborn, focused and don't give up until it's all over, if you even has to go under as a result. You can have a hot temper, but only when it comes to your territory, and the things that you believe in, nothing will ever get the power to control you. You're a strong personality with a great integrity, and you always walk your own path no matter the cost of it. You can also have a deep interest for the unknown.

2 of Pentacles- Equilibrium

Meaning

This card indicates on balance and unbalance in finance and security, when you have to think before you act. You have created a kind of a materialistic value, now you have to make some plans that will help you not to lose it after some time.

Reversed

With this aspect it's easy to lose all control. You have difficulties to handle what is before you. You can easy get stuck and stay in what has been instead of making further plans.

Color- Yellow/Magenta

In this combination of yellow of magenta there is a self consciousness and at the same time confusing. The yellow energy is self aware and the magenta carries on memories, patterns and preconceived and obstructions. You try to get a balance in all the new, the things you want to do and that with the old baggage and the things that you believe is right. Difficulties to move ahead and difficulties to turn and go back. You can now unify old knowledge with new experiences. You have self awareness; want to realize yourself but you to easy get stuck in old valuations.

Astrology

2nd decade of Taurus.

Weasel as totem:

Indicates that you're stubborn, flexible in your way to behave, steal ahead and gets want you need, lives in your own space and in that's it's your rules that is what is. You restore balance in your surroundings. You're quick and intense and trust your instinct in every move.

3 of Pentacles - Inquisitiveness

Meaning

This card indicates on resources that just gets your way. Even new experiences that can give apportion in the long run. Can also show on some educations.

Reversed

Don't take care of the things you have made, instead you lose it. Loose the advantage that was and gets stuck in some old expected situation.

Color - Yellow/Turquoise

Yellow and turquoise, this energies indicate on intelligence and goal oriented will. The will to realize you soul's ambitions. The yellow indicate on purposefulness, structure and intelligence, the turquoise indicates on the spirits desire and the spirits goal to develop. You can make plans, be aware, motivated and determinate to realize your goals. Uses your curiosity, your distinct feeling for right and wrong, searching for development and to realize the goal of the spirit.

Astrology

3rd decade of Taurus.

Mouse as totem

This energy tells that you see it all, negative is that you see what others don't want you to recognize, the little things as a hair shaft on a sweater, that's the thing a mouse will recognize and pick on. The mouse don't let anything get away, it can be useful sooner or later. To have mouse energy tells that you also all too often get in line of fire more than one time. You're the one everyone wants to catch and use. You're a little of a "lonely -mouse", all the time in the chance and run and prepared that it can be a cat around the corner or a prey in the air or maybe it's the next attraction that leads straight into the (mouse) trap. Shows that you're eager, and in some way a little of a stickler in your own way. You see and notice all, and willing to look for the things you want even if its difficulties that puts you in your instinct toward it.

4 of Pentacles - Exposed

Meaning:

This card indicate on stability, a good and stable base. You have control over the material and financially, you know exactly what you got and what your qualification in the things you possesses is. Security and some kind of stagnation.

Reversed

You receive with one hand and you give with the other, money is running through your hands to quickly, you don't have the security that you deep inside wish for, and much of that depends on yourself for not seeing the seriousness. You let others take control, you try to avoid responsibility.

Color - Orange/Blue

Blue and orange is the colors that indicate on consciousness about yourself, the blue is strengthen your integrity and your will, the orange is strengthen your power of creation, creativity, desire and development, searching with others but with yourself in focus. You have a strong will, a good base to create and materialize the things that you believe in, a favorable color for musicians. In this color it's also the energy of passion and for a strong identity. You keep your rhythm, the tone to make it work. Two strong colors together, indicate on a strong personality, you're so aware of yourself with a strong feeling and urge to create. Creative, eager. Impatient and with no patience, you want it all now. To realize and enjoy what's going on and still keep it that way for a while. You can involve others in your doings, but the blue color makes you put yourself in front.

Astrology

1st decade of Virgo.

Beaver as totem

Indicate that you're tough, stubborn and dedicated. To work and make efforts is one of your strength with a strong focus to do what your inner conviction guides you toward. Perceptive to changes, you will find the balance between Yin and Yang and know how to manage them both. Indicate that you're a person that takes responsibility for your area and your family. You need to have control over the things you build and you do build the things that you desire with focus and persistent.

5 of Pentacles - Poverty

Meaning

This card indicates on a financial confuses. When you lost your financially safety and it will affect all aspects of life. Obstacles that you meet to handle your situation. Assets that are looked or not arriving as expected. A bigger unbalance with finance. But it also shows that you have a poverty mind in general, that you don't make yourself valuable.

Reversed

There is a financial solution in front of you; it means that you can pass this but only for the moment. You don't want to see the truth.

Color - Orange/Indigo

This two vibrations of orange and indigo are both the colors that carries on creativity and acting, from the soul and with all the body with an inner desire to be expressed. They succeed better one by one and in this combination it will be too much and that can show that you will empty all energy that you want to express but it will get lost inside. If you get engaged in project you will just act too much and it will probably fall apart. You need to get these energies in control. The indigo is creativity from the soul, an inner desire that needs to be expressed. To get outfall of the inner desire no matter what. The orange is creating, acting, desire and passion based on the physical body. And together it will be too much energy; it will withdraw from both your body and your soul. If it's positive? Yes, but if you're going to be able to control this force, this desire from in and outside then you need to let go of all limits and be prepared to take consequences of what may be if it you will lose your power on the way. They together can be so much that they destroy each other. This can show in an inner powerlessness that doesn't have the ambition to get forth. The good thing if you're being able to handle this combination of energy you will be creating, full of life, full of ideas and have a lot of projects that you will realize. On the other hand you can have some trouble to decide what will be the next step, fear of losing something and hold yourself back. You're impulsive, restless, and philosophical at the same time you can be condescending to others if they don't understand what you want to achieve. You can be afraid and feel that someone else is threatening your truth.

Astrology

2nd decade of Virgo.

Rabbit as totem

Indicate that you have some fears to work with, to let go of preconceived thoughts and just relax. But you're quick to respond, maybe a little too quickly sometimes and your patience is not much to count on, not either the understanding for those others has things to do that come before you. You can be really good to avoid hard situations but at the same time you can be as good at pull on the must crazy, bothersome situations. You're a little "turn-the-cap-after-the-wind-person". As long as no one has demands on you then you just play along, but at the smallest attack you will run far away.

6 of Pentacles - Evolving.

Meaning

This card indicate on extra income, material advantage, security with in family economy. Eventually money that will come through education or from family or family business. This can also show on education, workshops, with already some experiences, or you could teach yourself.

Reversed

Economic catastrophe, conflicts about money. Disappointments in material things. A security that will turn out not being what you thought or expected Educations that will fail to come or aren't the one you expected.

Color - Orange/Purple

The orange energy gives stimulation, warmth, ideas, creativity and spontaneity meanwhile the purple enlighten, inner harmony, spiritual thinking and goals and visions about the future. Together they create a really good balance of lust and happiness. You can be zestful, engaged and spontaneous and up in the blue. You have a rich life of fantasy, a strong expressing personality, and it's easy for you to play on emotions. This is cozy as long as no one demands a deeper engagement, you can have difficulties to take feelings seriously, just play with them and express them easy with no feeling. You can even this be a good therapist, because you can go further in your imagination without being physical or emotional engaged. Dramatic and also easy going as long as it is on your terms and you get response o what you express.

Astrology

3rd decade of Virgo.

Wild boar as totem

Show that you're strong from within; you know your value and act by yourself. You take what you want and you even learn to look in the hidden. You develop a sense of smell and don't hesitate to take it more down under. You protect yourself through camouflage and clay is a purifying energy that will support you.

7 of Pentacles - Investment

Meaning

This card indicates that you, yourself need to take control over the things you want to achieve. You need your own planning. You will now look over your material security, you know what you got and you can still feel some doubts on how to continue for the better good. A big responsible for yourself.

Reversed

Loses your material safeness. The planning that you had will fail. You can seek help from your surroundings to strengthen what you got but are too afraid to handle yourself.

Color -Purple/Red

An awesome combination of red and purple that combine the base and fantasy. The red carries on the power and force and in that the spark to realize meanwhile the purple carries on inspiration and the clear sight and together they will strengthen each other and create a good ground with inspiration. You're colorful, goal orientated and intense in your appearance. You have the security and vision in a perfect combination. You got the wholeness of opportunities to realize your visions. You're inspired, clear minded and strong in your thought.

Astrology

1st decade of Capricorn.

Wolverine as totem

Just enjoy all that is offered to you, keep ahead and enjoy the assets no matter if it's you yourself or anybody else that has to fix it, or if you just pass an already set table. Respect is what you meet from others but also contempt by them that doesn't understand the good your doing or them who likes to have what they got for themselves. Since you have the ability, mark what's yours. You have the ability to get through most things, resistance is nothing for you, and you just act from your instinct. You have a strength, a awareness of the law of life, and you're not going to let anything get to waste, you see it as your responsibility to take care of anything coming your way and that is even if someone else has been there before you.

8 of Pentacles -Expansion

Meaning

This show on your ground to your working project or hobbies that gives you an inner satisfaction. Believe in the things you want to do because you got all the resources up your sleeves. Maybe it also can tell on some economic delivery that will help you to start or complete some of your ideas.

Reversed

Indicate that you don't want to see your own possibilities, afraid of criticism.

Color - Red/Magenta

The red energy gives power, order, stability and a good stable ground to act from and the magenta is strengthen all of this. This indicates that you have all the experience with you, a good base to work from and look for development in the past. You're very carefully with all the things you can handle a will power that is focused, sure in your actions and know how to act through routines. Tough and with stamina and with the knowledge that you already got you are willing to learn more, curious for development.

Astrology

2nd decade of Capricorn.

Reindeer as totem

Indicate that you're stubborn, you just walk your way and enjoying the one that you're. Life goes on generation after generation and you're a part of a big plan. Indicate that you're preserving, tough, persistent, you can handle whatever comes your way. You strive to follow an inherit pattern that you can evaluate one piece at a time. It's easy for you to carry on others burdens and you can show have some distance to others, they can get close but not as close as they believe.

9 of Pentacles -Gratitude

Meaning

This card indicates on unexpected surprises from your environment. Maybe it could be something that you will win or get a prize. You feel a fulfillment in finance. It also indicates on bigger communions. Happiness with others in an easy way.

Reversed

Loses. Money that will be lost, maybe gambled away, stolen or in some way an unbalance has been created. You can be cheated into something that you didn't get the truth in or was aware of your acting. Disappointments of friends or social life.

Color - Red/Turquoise

The red energy has a good base to stand at, a strength and seriousness mean while the turquoise energy has the searching, development and the unexpected in every moment. Together they will give a stable ground and anything can happen in that and will happen. You're intense, goal orientated and has a firm ground in yourself, you know what you want and also make sure it will be that way no matter the price. The things you want to do, you do and you have a development and a goal that is worth all the sacrifice.

Astrology

3rd decade of Capricorn.

Mole as totem

Indicate that you're distinctive, you just walk your way and creates new ways where nobody else has been or want to be or fit in. You're wayward and so aware of yourself. You always take what you want and can collect it and create humps of the things you don't want. Indicate that you're aware of your waywardness, you have a great patience and perseverance and you always listen to your inner instinct. You dare to seek deep and save your experiences as soon as you have tasted it.

10 of Pentacles - Achievement

Meaning

This card indicates on financially safety. You're feeling secure and having a material stability. A good ground that has everything working as it should, you feel good, safe and like yourself and your environment. Increased material standard.

Reversed

Insecurity, a ground with no stability or safeness. An economic situation that is not working. Eventually conflicts with your surroundings regarding money.

Color- Pink/Yellow

The pink vibration indicates on open spirituality, a positive light of belief and spiritual inspiration. The yellow energy indicates on independence and an awareness of your own individuality. Together they show on an increased awareness of who you're from within your soul existence and what possibilities you have in life. You're independent but still open for your own development through others, you dare to question what you do and your way in life. You dare to change and develop when you notice that you're doing something wrong from your life path.

Astrology

Chiron of Earth.

Hedgehog as totem

You walk your own way, the way of your truth - walk your talk -. You do the things that suite you most, looking to your external and your abilities. You do forget about boring responsibility for the moment and then you try something new again. Enrich your way with new escapades and be open that you will get something, wisdom from every creature that comes your way. You like it best when its calm you prefer night time to take a stroll without anyone disturbing your walk. Even though you openness your very precise to mark your area and demand respect that others will leave you in peace when you wish for it. You're one of them that enjoy having others around you, but you also like to go by yourself. But awe that person that comes to close. You decide for yourself who you want to have close. You do everything in your pace.

Page of Pentacles - Project

Meaning

with this card its messages that has to do with your home of finances, could also be your health. An addition to your material standard, gives more opportunities, could show in some contribution or prize.

Reversed

Delayed or default on contributions or something like that. Things will not work out as planned or being promised. You can feel some x about money or your ground.

Color - Blue/Black

The blue vibration carries on consciousness, clear thinking and a strong identity, and the black energy indicate that experience is important and in that to see it all, know it all and seek and find the answer to it all. Together they show on an analytic questioning energy that seeks development in all that is. You're energy is to be in the development that is now and it will support your spiritual searching even if you don't search.

Astrology

The abilities from Taurus, Vigor and Capricorn.

Deer as totem

Indicate that your popular, happy and intense, you know what you want and you also know how to get it. Invincible even at uphill struggle and opposition, you always find a way out and know that everything will show on a new way if you're open for it. You can maybe be seen as a little negligent or like wiseacres much depending on your inner trust that all has a meaning in life. You're a little shy, like it best with your kind and to wandering along in your own pace.

Knight of Pentacles - Efficiency

Meaning

You've got the steadiness. Something will come into your life in a form of security, eventually money. You can succeed with your economical plans. An extra support will come your way. Structure is one of your good qualities and also to be a do-it-all-man.

Reversed

You may have some disorder and tumble around your finances, wrong plans about economy. Probably some important deal that will get lost.

Color - Blue/White

The blue energy indicate on openness, communication, social behavior and a development. The white energy indicates on awareness, and attention to all that is around. Together they show on a spiritual curiosity that circles around all the development. A will to see and pay notice to what you can do in different situations. You're a social, talent person that seeks the truth in everything that you do, to get things to fit together and that they also should have content.

Astrology

The abilities from Taurus, Vigor and Capricorn.

Elk (Moose) as totem

You've got a big personality with a huge power. You can concur most anything with time and patience. Show that you value yourself and that you know who you are and what's important to you. All steps leads to somewhere in life. Dare to stand up for who you are and what is important for you, take control, and stretch above at least some inches more. Nobody can miss you when you take a step forth, even if you tippy toeing or taking gigantic steps. You're a perfect predecessor and show where the way leads to. You're listening to your impulses and get forth with your crown seen or not and the whole world is for you to reign.

Queen of Pentacles - Practical

Meaning

With you there are safeness, order and clarity. A stable and firm situation. You're calm and at peace in all that you experience. You like to be at your place and have everything cozy from your standards. Good at organize.

Reversed

Demands, searching for everything to be perfect, everything should be in its place and nothing should ever change.

Color - Yellow/Black

The yellow energy has independence as energy and a strong will and stubbornness, awareness of the identity and the black energy has the experience of it all, both negative and positive and in this mix it will take responsibility for itself. You're not a seeker with this energy, more a reviewer personality that like to have structure in all that you're going to be involved in. You know who you are and what you can do and what values that are important and then the spiritual energy has to adapt to you while you analyze what you should believe in.

Astrology

The abilities from Taurus, Vigor and Capricorn.

Llama as totem

Indicate that you got integrity, you know what you're worth and you take yourself deep seriously. You like to be on your own, to potter around and you got the most of abilities with you. You can also be wayward and decide all by yourself when, what and how it all shall be done and it's a challenge for the one that tries to change it. Generous, present and very popular. You're on the edge and don't hesitate to spit on someone that gets in the way. You fight for what you believe and to get it your way. Stubborn as no one else, and tough, you can carry on a lot. You like to share and give warmth to them that are cold. Trustfully to your closest, and is proud to show what you're worth.

King of Pentacles - Serious

Meaning

With this energy there is a safe feeling, security and stable decision and a well being. A family situation that is under control with order and clarity and a strong togetherness.

Reversed

Unsafely. Disappointments and conflicts. Quarrel and falsity.

Color- Yellow/White

Yellow and white energy carries on the focused will and a strong forwardness. The yellow energy indicate on awareness and clear thinking, a need for control and a intelligence of the three areas of physical, emotional and mentally. The white indicate on spiritual thinking, visions for the future and an openness for transformation and an open consciousness. You're aware of yourself and your own power, your ability and what you, yourself can achieve. A strong focus on your own development from logical thinking. You strive for the individual's freedom and the feeling of right and wrong and in that to get it all perfect.

Astrology

The abilities from Taurus, Vigor and Capricorn.

Buffalo as totem

You're big and strong, safe with yourself and you got a good footing in life and know that it will always work out perfectly. You're some kind of do-it-all-man and got a deep inner side. Indicate that it's easy for you to believe in miracles, the power of the prayer, whoever you pray to. You can see the wholeness; you understand why something's must happen, even if you don't understand the event. But you got a deep trust that everything happens for a reason. Everything has it meaning and you accept it, but you can also use the power of the prayer to improve a situation. You accept that you prefer to live in the happiness and abundance, the power of the buffalo is abundance, all parts are used to what is needed. It's easy for you to create abundance and assets, wealth are the power of the buffalo.

Swords

On the cards of the Swords are the element of air - Sylphs. The blue figures on each card express an experience. They are the energies that are symbolic for the thought of what happens and expresses all that is both expected and unexpected. Here is also all the elements of air in astrology, and they represent the star signs of - Twins, Libra and Aquarius. The totems belong in the air.

Ace of Swords - Initiate

Meaning

This card indicates on all possibilities. You have all the force with you. Big things that happens and that you're are a co creating person with lot of ideas. Firm and like to settle decisions.

Reversed

Lost motivation, losing energy and getting weak. Emptiness. Plans that don't work out. You don't have the energy to take care of and hold positions.

Color - Blue

With this energy there are a lot of different role plays and a strong personality. A mental strength, an intelligence and mentality. The clear sight, the conscious and responsibility in own acting's. This shows on searching after expression, the confirmation on who you are, what you can do and how far you can go. Your profession is your expression, identity to the world around you. Thoughts about who you are, what you want, what you can do. You're expressing personality, clear thinking, communicative, awake, alert and aware about all around you and maybe first your own part. Truth and justice is what drives you in all that you do. Be honest in your visions, your role, your work, and in relationship. To stand up for your truth no matter how hard it can be and be fare even if it's you that loses on it.

Astrology

1st decade of Gemini.

Seagull as totem

Indicates that you like to be on your own. You like to be without any responsibility and to just fly with the winds that pass. You love freedom and are a romantic person that takes it all as it comes but you don't like demands. Life is meant to live here and now. Indicate that freedom is the most important thing for you, to be your own and to fly your own way. You can easy survive any situation that happens and are used to get misunderstood but you don't care as long as you can fly in your own space.

2 of Swords - Respite

Meaning

This card indicates on relief, inner peace and harmony. Stillness. You feel an inner strength, nothing can stop you, and you have found your inner power.

Reversed

Unsure. Want a lot but it only become thoughts and wonders. Having difficulties to act, feeling mixed up, you don't know what you really want, can't decide and don't have the ability to take responsibility.

Color- Blue/Indigo

With this colors, blue and indigo that are the intellectual in the blue and the depth in the indigo vibration. This combination creates seriousness, an insight that makes you stop in your doings, have some reflecting thoughts and go deeper within. It can also give energy of waiting and an inner stillness that develops to search forward. You're more mature, take responsibility more seriously and have the trust that all the knowledge that you have is enough for the moment. The process of spiritual growth is going on, and you don't have any demands on yourself, the struggle is over to find your inner trust. It is now that you can search in your inner depth, take forth the knowledge that you have and introspection will be a more important part of your life.

Astrology

2nd decade of Gemini.

Crow as totem

Indicates on wisdom, the knowledge that there are more layers of the dimension that you're in. You're aware of your own shadow, your own karma, and you know that life is only an illusion. You're an expert to transform and to adapt and melt in were you are needed. You carry on wisdom and make wise decisions, and have respect for others choices because it's there illusion and not yours. You look for changes, to see into the depth and understand from different angles and energies. Indicate that you're a little of a mystical person, others never learn to know where you are. You always have a glimpse in your eye, but from what? You're very careful to live your life, in your way.

3 of Swords - Conflict

Meaning

This card indicate on conflicts. Mistrust and quarrels. You don't have the same opinions as your environment. Worries and fusses. Different points of view.

Reversed

Strong conflicts. You do have doubts believing in you. You will meet strong opposition from your environment. Feeling alone and attacked.

Color - Blue/Purple

An exciting combination, the blue vibration gives wisdom and an individual identity and a strong will and the purple vibration will give seeking, inspiration and awareness. But this combination also gives restless searching for the truth. You're restless, seeking, no patience, deep, analytic, dreaming and fascinated by the most things around you. And you can have a hard time to find your place in the searching for the perfect. You have the need to find the truth, and not to give up without keep asking to get answers.

Astrology

3rd decade of Gemini.

Falconer as totem

Indicate that you have some extra power, an unbelievable capacity to realize what you have in your mind. Determined, focused and active. You want some collaboration and someone else to take the responsibility and then you can just fly around when you need something new to catch up with. But you can also just slide around and feel confirmed for who you're. Indicate that you're a person that is intense and give it all and act directly. You know what needs to be done and take your responsibility. You're often in the middle of the public space and doing all the things you have decided to do.

4 of Swords - Passive

Meaning

This card indicate that you're mixed up and also mixed down. Emptiness, difficulties to get forth, doesn't believe in yourself. You're seeking peace and quiet. You need to slow down and take it slower.

Reversed

You're lost in yourself, feeling empty and out of energy. Don't have the stamina to take care of yourself or whatever responsibility that you need to take care of.

Color - Blue/Magenta

The blue vibration is will, power and motivation and the magenta vibration is stagnation, seriously and thoroughness. Together they can create a burn out of energies. Take one step forth and then one step back and experience the anxiety of both taking this steps or not and that it will not change anything. Confusion. You're deep thinking, voluble and talk all the time of what you have already done and have the knowledge of. Now it can be hard for you to get forth and to take in new insights. You have the need to know what is happening and that it's a routine in it all. A security that you know every step in. You're aware, have a good memory, remembering the most things and happenings. But you can easily get stuck in old habits and are conservative.

Astrology

1st decade of Libra.

Woodpecker as totem

Indicate that you easily can get all the focus on one thing and that can ruin for others but hopefully it gives you what you seek. You're intense; know what you want and don't doubt it for a second, you just act even if it has to be on the cost of someone else. You're good at rhythm and can be a good musician if not for others at least for yourself. You're stubborn in the things you want to do and in a need of rhythm, routines, repetitions to make you feel fulfilled. You're very good at getting up and forward, maybe before others and that without picking on someone else.

5 of Swords - Stress

Meaning

This card indicate on stress on all levels. With you, with the environment, losing control. You want more than you have, but don't know how to reach it as soon as possible, intimidated.

Reversed

You seek solutions that are only for short times. Getting the environment stressed, get all the responsibilities on others and evade.

Color - Blue/Turquoise

The turquoise vibration indicates on the step to self awareness and consciounesses that you're more than just a personality. The blue vibration indicates on identity and communication. Together they support the positive in that you're daring to develop. Questioning and seeking more than before, the negative is that you sometimes can't find the harmony with yourself and your role in the environment and it's easy to get into conflicts as you don't know your value and who you are. Values changes in the speed of the development. Inner conflicts can be what indicate the most, that you don't feel secure with yourself or with someone else, loss of trust. You're always in development and seeking in most everything, it's a hard challenge for you to find what you like to explore and what is your goal in life. You're unsure on what you want and can build up the smallest thing to a big issue, bigger than anything. You have an inner strength if you just dare to see it. You have the possible to develop your sense to search development through any challenge.

Astrology

2nd decade of Libra.

Magpie as totem

Indicate that you're independent but in need of your flock, you're stubborn, goal orientated, looking out for yourself and what's yours or could be yours, you're fascinated by all that is glimmering, and in that a little self absorbed. You like to be around like minded and exchange comments and gossip. You like to be in the center, in the middle of all and trying to get all that you need for your own pleasure. Clever, intense and babbly.

6 of Swords - Transition

Meaning

This card indicates on freedom. Inner harmony. You will mostly do a journey, mentally or physically. A relief, an inner freedom. You've reached the goals that you've made in your visions.

Reversed

Hard to get through, to get forth, and get stuck in old habits and fears. In your mind it feels like you're getting nowhere. Blockage.

Color - Indigo

The indigo vibration indicate on wisdom, intelligence, seriously thinking and a strong intuition. A focused mind, clairvoyance. You can now realize your thoughts. You're aware with yourself, have the need to stop and reflect, think about if it's a balance in that what your goal in life is.

Astrology

3rd decade of Libra.

Dove as totem

Indicate that you're really good at making peace in situations of crisis and that you should have trust, because you always get the right insights and a spiritual guidance in all that you do. You're a person that like to have a lot of people around you, very social and engaged in creating peace and freedom for everyone. Optimistic, you spread happiness and maybe you get to learn that there are others that like you to be quite sometimes.

7 of Swords - Resolution

Meaning

This card indicates on opportunities, that you get a hold on the things that been in your mind for some time. It can be a bigger decision like moving and change your working situation. You have to take care of yourself. You decide something that you have the responsibility with. It can also show on shorter journeys.

Reversed

You don't want to see your own possibilities; you refuse to be a part in a transformation. Get stuck in conflicts.

Color - Indigo/Purple

The indigo vibration indicate intuition, the ability to create visions and to dream and the purple vibration strengthen this abilities and get more of inspiration and will to the development. These two vibrations create together a belief and an ability that is more than the common one. Even if it's high vibrations of colors there also a firm ground and a common sense and not only a spiritual growth. You're an individual that is dreaming but still you create in reality what you got in your mind. You have a clear mind of thinking and are focused and so well aware of whom you're, what you can do and what you should do.

Astrology

1st decade of Aquarius.

Hawk as totem

Indicate that you can circulate around your target, the one thing that you desire until you can get your claws into it. Patience and persistence are the strong sides of you. You're aware that everything has a meaning and that you need to be perceptive to everything not only what you got in your mind. This energy wants you to understand that you're an accommodator, a person that will pass your knowledge to others. Dare to squawk and tell what you see, don't analyze, instead get the message because you're receptive.

8 of Swords - Abandonment

Meaning

Indicate that you feeling lost and worried. Really bad self-confidence. You don't have any faith in yourself. Feeling outside, lost and in despair. You don't see the possibilities to be able to do anything. Don't believe that anyone else is there for you.

Reversed

You slip away from all demands that you can feel, try to learn to make decisions by your own. You can feel as you're all alone, that no one is there for you no matter what.

Color - Indigo/Magenta

The indigo vibration indicates wisdom and an inner desire to realize what your soul desires and the magenta vibration shows on the reality, the ground that is already created and the possibilities that are from a gathered experience. The magenta is created from the blue and the red color and most from the red that gives the ground and stability and the blue is in a development and a searching for identity. Together they will activate a seeking and developing process of what has been and what shall become a picture of the wholeness. You're open, clever and developing and also determinate to get what you already got to further develop, and can sometimes close your eyes for all the new things and feel panic that you can't let go of what already is. You weight the positive and the negative and get lost in the valuation instead of be in what is and to develop what is in front of you.

Astrology

2nd decade of Aquarius.

Ostrich as totem

Indicate that you're living your life in a quick tempo, prepared to get away in a hurry if you think it's necessary, no doubt that you will react directly. You're curious and courageous and want to know what's around the bushes. Indicate that you're quick in turn over's, you like when everything is on the move and especially together with others, new adventures and new views. You're listen to what you, yourself want to do and act independent and goal oriented.

9 of Swords - Despair

Meaning

Indicates that you're in a state of worrying and conflicts. Aloneness and despair. You can feel weak and hurt yourself physical, both conscious and unconscious. Difficulties to relax, anxiety through all of your body. Nightmares and problems to concentrate.

Reversed

Losing control over yourself. Mixed up and intimidated. Depressed with anxiety.

Color - Indigo/Turquoise

Indigo vibration indicates deep thoughts, insights that sometimes can be hard to think about, and thoughts that are more life determined. The turquoise vibration indicates questioning, changes that creates by you being on your wrong life path, and even in insights. Together they indicate that it will be a lot of changes in your thoughts and also spiritual that is evolving but it doesn't mean that it will flow as you wish. You will be forced to clean out everything that isn't working in your life. You're in a transformation state of mind; constant seeking after what will give you the total experience. Sometimes dramatic when things doesn't turn out as you wish. It's like a remodeling, and in that, new things also wants its place. And symbolic like with refurbishing you will get memories, some garbage in the corner, and tacky wall papers to sort out. You're at least well aware of yourself and the things you need to change, the developing is moving forward no matter you want it or not.

Astrology

3rd decade of Aquarius.

Cuckoo as totem

You have the ability to slip away and let everyone else do your things, you're a master of manipulation and you're doing it real good, in fact too good. And maybe so good that you even fool yourself in all the things that you have going on. You see and sense so much, and you can handle most things, even how to get away in the cheapest way, but will you do it in the long run? It's time that you see your own greatness and your own abilities and dare to take responsibility for the thing you do the best, change the condition for others.

10 of Swords - Nothingness

Meaning

This card indicates emptiness, an uncomfortable stillness. There is nothing of power or ambition. Loss of energy, no force or power at all.

Reversed

Exhausted, empty and no motivation in life. You just want tranquility and silence.

Color - Purple

The purple vibration indicates spiritual inspiration, and open mind and the courage to looking forward and to look at yourself and your part, your soul and the meaning you have in your own life. With the purple vibration there is spiritual happiness, happiness over life, spiritual courage and an inner force of inspiration that strengthen your personality. You're an open, spontaneous person that has a lot to give to others but you're not always aware of it. You spread inspiration and self value by following your inspiration and inner voice, your soul's impulse.

Astrology

Chiron of Air.

Vulture as totem

Indicates that you're patient, tough and trust life, you know that you're on the right spot and that all has its own time and that you get what you need. It also shows that you know where to get your energy, and you do get it without putting so much effort to it. You stay alert on what's going on and know where you get the best; you just keep yourself in the front.

Page of Swords - Message

Meaning

This card indicates on messages and decisions that affect you. Decision that has to be taken now. A message that affects your wholeness and creates something new.

Reversed

Messages that will be delayed. Messages that is unexpected and negative. You will have to postpone some plans and thoughts.

Color - Indigo/Black

The Indigo vibration indicate on a spiritual consciousness, dreams of the future and clear minded visions while the black vibration indicate on knowledge and experiences of what already has been and in that a strong will and conviction. You have a strong inner persuasion that makes you search all the time after a new truth, a new belief and experience and that maybe the grand cause to your restlessness.

Astrology

Gemini, Libra and Aquarius abilities.

Hummingbird as totem

This indicates that you should see your possibilities and not your limits, dare to do more than you think is possible. Take a look at your power, your resources, believe in yourself and materialize. You will always dazzle someone with your sweet image whatever you will do. You should take forth more of your life of joy, because you have it; you have so much of love and vitality within. You can make others feel good just by your present; you give love and can twitter a lot of you to get response. Maybe you have the need to get the feeling of inspire others.

Knight of Swords - Capricious

Meaning:

This indicate on a lot of activity, a lot of action and process and that in both good and bad energy. Intensity and turbulence and a lot of things to try on no matter what.

Reversed

Trouble and disorder, unexpected events that makes it all more difficulty. Messy and a lot of disturbing energy.

Color - Indigo/White

With this colors indigo and white you're in mental spheres. The indigo vibration shows on wisdom, an open spiritual sense but also a creative force and an awareness of what is and what can become. White vibration indicate on an open mind, and a will to know more, to believe and have trust to your visions and with the indigo vibration building on the creative force that you have inside. From this experience that you been through you're building your situation and you do believe that there is a reason for your enlightened. You dream of a world of evolving, a place where everyone are listening to their spiritual self and dare to live, and to take steps out in the unknown.

Astrology

Gemini, Libra and Aquarius abilities.

Ant as totem.

This indicate that you will fight for your goal, totally convinced that you're going to reach it sooner or later, the time doesn't matter, the most important is that you reach your goal. This, the medicine of the ant is a tough karma to carry on. You have an enormous patience, an enormous will; you're punctilious and fight for the things you believe in to the end. You have a hot temper and aren't afraid of them bigger than you, for you know it's only on the outside. You know that you're a part of a larger group or the one that controls the group so you're the one that are the biggest anyway. But the balance is subtle, the medicine of the ant is the closest step to superior intelligence and stupidity, there are tendency to (manic) depression, schizophrenic and totally stupidity that is available around the corner, if you lose control you will freak out. It's important for you to set up your goal with others and don't make yourself bigger than your already is, even in a leader position you need to be a part of others and have the knowledge that you're nothing without others. This also indicates that you're laborious, especially in the things that are important to you. It's easy for you to be engaged and harder to let go, stop and move on. You can go deep into the subject and really discover what the main course is.

Queen of Swords - Statement

Meaning

This card indicates on strength and a safety feeling. A go for it spirit and a belief in the future and in yourself. Togetherness and own responsibility in you reactions. Control and a good oversight in situations.

Reversed

Falseness, deceit, insecurity, unreliable. Quick turns that you can't get a grip in. Can feel steamrollered.

Color - Purple/Black

The purple vibration is about spiritual awareness, the deeper searching and inner silence. The black vibration indicates knowledge, expanded awareness about your own vulnerability and together the focus upon the research for power, and the ultimatum enlighten. You have a great knowledge about the spiritual, you're above all to dare to evolve, the power of the thoughts is the biggest and you use it. You're scrupulous about what's happens and you have control over most things before you take a further step.

Astrology

Gemini, Libra and Aquarius abilities.

Turkey as totem

Indicate that you have many talents, you got a lot on your mind, you have the power to inspire others, to get them to see themselves and you can complete with the things they misses out in. Balance is important, movement and dancing and to feel the freedom under your wings even if your plans is not to lift at the moment.

Indicates that you should take yourself serious, you got a lot that others don't have, you've got your dignity, your style, and respect and at the same time you have the ability to notice and be available when it's needed and you create freedom in what is. Give from yourself at special occasion.

King of Swords - Authorize

Meaning

Indicates on authorizes, determination. The power and the opportunities to create the life that you want. Security and stability, contracts, deals and documents. Power and support, enough strength to handle and resolve all situations that you may get in to.

Reversed

Falseness, abuse, shattered that create false grounds and dishonest premises. Broken companionship and deception.

Color - Purple/White

The purple and white energy indicates that there is a spiritual desire to find yourself. The purple vibration carries on spiritual insights and visions, the ability to see more than it is. The white vibration carries on thoughts, clarity and an inner strength based on a total openness. Together they will show on mental strength and a visionary spirit to have the will to create the best. You're clearheaded, aware, quick in thoughts, open for new thoughts and new visions, new paths to develop. You have the ability to look forward, create new ways of thinking, to guide others and to see what can become and be strong in your conviction. You know that you have this ability and you trust your visions and doing your best to create the perfect life but maybe you forget about the balance.

Astrology

Gemini, Libra and Aquarius abilities.

Peacock as totem

indicates that you must find your balance, others see you and hear you but you need yourself to see your pride and also let others be aware. You make a show and maybe many are fooled to believe that you can do so much more than you can. And they may believe that you follow the code of behavior, but not you, you walk your way in your own style. Totally aware that no one will not to see you. You know that you have powers through others, you can dazzle them with what you show and so also with all that you have to say, and if they don't like what they see and hear, then that's their problem and not yours, you know what you have to express. You have a lesson in being seen, you can't be unseen, that's the idea with your life. It's time that you first of all show your pride, because nobody can miss it, let them then get closer to develop what's under your pride, and if it doesn't suits you, you can always let someone admire you until the day you find the one that sees all of you.

0 The Fool - Attraction

Meaning

This card indicates on spontaneity. When you're happy and dare to be yourself. Dare a little more of a feeling of joy and want to experience most of life. Happiness and unexpected events. The lust is stronger than a responsibility feeling that has not been developed yet.

Reversed

Indicates that you have difficulties to handle seriously things. You want to live here and now. You have shortage in responsibilities. Have got involved in too much and have no intention to end the things that got started. Trying to run of what you promised. Hard to say No to things.

Color - Black

The black vibration is the color that has all the other colors within. Often looked as a destructive color that is taking all the energies. And of course no one feels good to have black around for a longer period. Since it's a heavy color the energies around will become heavy. Black has the ability to activate the other colors and by itself it can be enough. But the black vibration has a lot of wisdom and is a symbol for female energy, Yin. It carries on a lot of experience and also the opposite - nothing at all. It can be destructive in the long run. You've got a lot of spiritual experience but not so much wisdom how to use it. You can have difficulties to act by yourself, you expect miracles but you don't really need them.

Astrology

Sun.

Rune: The empty/ The filled (void)

All or nothing.

Unicorn as totem

Indicates that you're a color strong personality that a lot of people can be fascinated by but also can be a little reserved towards. You can adapt to your environment and make others see what you want them to see. You help others to see the magic in the life. You spread romance and sometimes it seems like you light up the sparkle in others eyes. You're a protector for the magic and for all animals. You're in your spiritual enlighten, aware of your own power and your lessons. You know that you're not more worth than any other; you know that you're in your phase of developing and in that you got the opportunity to use your magical powers.

1 The Magician - Resourcefulness

Meaning

This card indicates on possibilities and talents. To be able to handle both one thing and another at the same time, the expected and unexpected. A creative and strong inner force to make things come thru.

Reversed

You don't believe in yourself. You have difficulties to realize your dreams and ambition.

Color - Magenta/White

Magenta and white vibration together indicates on what lays behind, the ground and experience from the magenta vibration and the desire after the future in the white vibration. The perfect balance between the past and the future. Magenta shows on the past, the experience, the wisdom that is a part of what is. The white vibration on the visions, the possibilities that everything is possibly. This shows on influence of the past and earlier experiences and at the same time the consciousness that the future is control all choices and expressions. Open, looking forward and at the same time no step is taken without looking at what have been the result and the possibilities. It's a lot that you can do but you can also be inhibited since the memories influences the decisions all the time. You have the ability to understand mostly all that is, have understanding in your behavior, a great experience and don't judge without trying to find solutions.

Astrology

Mercury.

Rune: Uruz

Indicates on power and creative. A rune for the elemental force - motivation. Here is the beginning, the creative inner power. Maybe you have been through the same thing before and now you have the possibilities to do it all over again but this time with more knowledge. A new beginning in life.

Wolf as totem

indicates that you have strong leader abilities and is in need of stimulation of other like minded persons. You're sensitive and move with the energies. It also shows that you have the ability to learn and to teach. A lonely wolf but still you know all the time where your pack is and where you belong. Strong identity, either you're the leader of the pack or a member, but you belong with like-minded and have your role to make the pack function. You have the ambition to grow and reach the goal as the leader. The wolf is listening to the flow of life, the unconscious and howl at the moon since the moon is the creator of the condition of the emotions. It knows when the energies is changing and let others know, you're aware of yourself, your value and your acting. The moon is your energy source and it's from the moon you get your power and information.

2 The High Priestess - Intuition

Meaning

Indicates that you have a deep inner wisdom. A strong intuition. Strong feelings and responsibility. Co operation with others, but you have the leading role in the team. You focus on the balance between black and white, negative and positive.

Reversed

Don't listen to yourself, abusing your knowledge, get in conflicts with others, problems with women.

Color -Magenta/Black

This combination of the colors magenta and black can be difficult to understand before you understand how black can influence in another way than negative. Magenta vibration has the knowledge, the experience, the daring and deep intense and the black vibration have all the colors for good or bad. Together they create a dynamic force, an intense energy that take over most and creates engagement in routines and in using energy. You can be intense and deep at the same time, analytic and mentally very strong. Aware of the wholeness of yourself and all that is bad or good. You can be manipulative in your way to act.

Profundity, a deep feeling of the wholeness, sees more, knows more, acts more, dare more because it's all in you and you know that you can handle all resistance that can occur, but probably don't do it because you got a spiritual dynamic within.

Astrology:

Moon.

Rune: Perthro

Indicates the wholeness between all the element and entities. Here is the contact with the inner spirituality. To be calm and look at the world around as a part of it. A rune for crystals- Receive.

Reversed it shows on the fear you can't see or explain.

Lynx as totem

Indicates that you're the best one to be silence when it needed, others can confide to you most anything and you will take it with you to the grave, transform it and letting it go. The only one that has the lesson left keeps it as heritage. You know it all, but don't say anything. The secrets are the same as knowledge, you just know, understands how it all is connected. You know why something's happens, you watch and keep the lessons and let the event go. You carry on beauty, a mystical beauty that others can watch at a distance. It's only the ones that are close to you, that also carries on the silence can get close. You like to just get along in your loneliness and just watch and collect all the lessons you see and understand. You know and you understand, you learn and grow and everything you keep it's only for yourself since you're yourself closest. It's easy for you to find new areas that can give you some stimulation and you don't get stuck on old tracks.

3 The Empress - Abundance

Meaning

Indicates on growth, a warm and giving force and inner power. Its stable around you and you're environment and with finance and security. Eventually more of love, marriage or children.

Reversed

You're blocked in your values and your part of responsibility. You don't see any ways out, take on to much of responsibility. Unexpected trouble in your home, blocked energy.

Color - Turquoise/Black

The turquoise vibration is the spiritual development, the one that shows that you has reached a higher level of consciousness, you have united blue (communication) with green (feeling) and with that you reached a higher sense. The turquoise can also show on questioning of all that already is as it will be. The black vibration is mirroring all colors, and has the dynamic of all the power but also the ability to demand all the other colors for own force. Together they will go to the bottom with whatever the energy wants to realize, make a clean up and contribute with what is needed. A growth of the energy by letting it has its own development. And to try all different aspects to value what is the best, but isn't everything that in all aspects?

Astrology:

Venus.

Rune: Wunjo

Indicates happiness, joy, laughter and togetherness. To give of joy with a wish for prosperity to the other without expecting anything in reward. A rune for happiness. Reversed it carries on conflicts and despair. To live in the role as a martyr and not be able to speak ones truth, to not be enough motivated to act.

Dolphin as totem

Indicates that you have found your spiritual truth, your consciousness, you know who you are and you're in your life vision all the time. You're the one that you are, all the time, and in the moment. Yesterday was another day and experience, you have developed from that and then let go, and tomorrow is another day and you will expand from the one you're today. You're present in the now, you know that guilt, shame and bad consciousness make nobody happy and you did your best so why ponder? Playfulness is one of your strongest abilities, you know that life is meant to enjoy now, who knows if it will be a tomorrow? And what is better than just go with the flow? You're a happy person and maybe you just have your own song that s with you all the time. You enjoy company and are friendly as long as nobody teases you. Maybe it's like you have the ability to just slip away when you no longer like the atmosphere and then you can always find another place to swim along in.

4 The Emperor - Authority

Meaning

This card indicates on security, a firm and calm situation. Plans and creating, expectation, authority, government and decisions, deals and contracts. Will of power and a leader role.

Reversed

You're in conflict with yourself and your plans and probably even with authorities. Deals that don't turn out as planned. Difficulties to realize what has been planned. Can't find your own strength.

Color -Turquoise/White

White and turquoise vibration are a strong aspect, the turquoise vibration shows on transformations and an awareness on a more spiritual level and the white vibration strengthen the visions, the spiritual searching. The turquoise is the spiritual, the balance and harmony from within. A spiritual development and growing for good or bad. What doesn't work has to let go off, or rebuild and what is working need to strengthen. With the white are the conviction that the feeling is right, the identification and the belief that it all can be to the better high. You're experienced to thoughts and spirituality, well aware that your own part and the connection between the earthly and the heavenly. You treasure the assets that you manage, the turquoise vibration aim for development and the truth and the white vibration after new visions and a belief in dreams. You can focus and build new visions, you have and inner conviction and strength.

Astrology

Gaia (Earth).

Rune - Isa

indicates everything that is still and in a waiting process. Here is the rest and stagnation that has become from not been acting in balance. You're afraid of your own emotions, afraid to lose control. A rune for - stillness.

Reversed it indicates that you have got stalled and can't get forth.

Bear as totem

indicates that you need time to take in all the impact and melt it, you don't do anything in a rush, and you want to reevaluate every step that you will take. You need silence, stillness and meditation and that can be an active part of your life. You need a moment of stillness and to get into yourself and bring forth the power. It's easy for you to work with dream magic, creative as well as in sleep, and regardless which method you will evolve. In the creative dream you see your goal and in the sleeping dream you get confirmation. With the bear as your totem you're strong, preserving, and wise and cool in your behavior, well aware that you can manage most anything with your own strength.

5 The Pope- Tradition

Meaning

This card indicates on knowledge, an inner knowing about most anything that hasn't the need to experience to understand. You can develop through other people's lessons. You seek a spiritual meaning in most everything. You have the need to reach an evolvement.

Reversed

You don't want to see your situation as it is. You close your eyes for the truth and create your own truth. It's easy for you to listen to others and forget to find your inner confirmation.

Color - Purple/Turquoise

The turquoise and the purple vibration indicates on spiritual development. The turquoise vibration pushes your soul to find a development of your personality life after life. The purple vibration is about searching, the insights to find your inner belief and your spiritual identity. Together they show on a seriously seeking and an inner force to reach the ultimate. You're seeking, curious about life, and prepared to sacrifice everything to find the truth about life and the totally wholeness. You're sincere in your searching, prepared to see it all, what you have experienced and what will be, and to understand why life is as it is and why you're the one that you're and why everything is happening in the pace that it does.

Astrology

Mars.

Rune - Algiz

Indicates on communication and insights. Here is the wholeness with everything alive - the spiral of life. Conversations with your inner soul and with your environment. You pay attention to all the things that happens in your life right now. A rune for spirits and guides - Protection.

Reversed it indicates on malice and that you're not in contact with yourself and your choice in life.

Eagle as Totem

indicates that you're strong and persistence, you have a natural born strength and take your place. Receive respect. You're here to realize the belief in yourself, your dreams and visions and in that prepared to make sacrifices for others. To lead through pain, to heal your environment and learn that all, one and one is one individual and at the same time we are all one. You collect experiences, through your power of daring to do the most unexpected. Through a trust and a belief in your own intuition you spread your wings. You protect them that need it and fly away with them if that's the answer for the moment. You carry on a great wisdom through Eagle medicine, the art to hold in to it and use it in the right way and to reserve your energy to the time it's needed. You don't need to spread your wings to show how beautiful they are, you know, and that's enough.

6 The Lovers - Unions

Meaning

Indicates on love and harmony, togetherness with one and all. True relationships in love or in a project. Travelling with family.

Reversed

Conflicts with yourself or in relationships. A relation that doesn't work anymore, disappointments with feelings. Broken relations.

Color - Black/White

The black vibration shows on all the colors, a united force and an awareness of all around, while the white vibration show on the light, the vibration, and a openness, a spiritual security in being in the moment. Together they combine a balance (grey) and an adjustment between to opposites. You see and feel what others may sense; you seek between the black and the white to get the perfect spiritual balance and to be in the joy of the pulse of all that is your inner experience. You dare to put it all on love, you know so much with your and seek someone to share it with.

Astrology

Jupiter.

Rune - Othila

Indicates on family and your environment. This is for togetherness, the harmony with yourself to both your elder and younger relations. A rune for family - Togetherness.

Reversed shows on conflicts and break ups. You can't find yourself in your role to others.

Dog as totem

Indicates that you are on guard, your instinct for protection is strong. A little reserved but still open for new contacts.

Cat s totem

Indicates that you're clever, headstrong and know what you want, and gladly put your claws in the coveted.

7 The Chariot - Independence

Meaning

Indicates on will power, an inner harmony and security. You know your goal, are aware and stable. In power with yourself and it's easy for you to take responsibility for yourself and your visions.

Reversed

Loses yourself. Don't know what you want or what you should do, seeking all around but don't have the focus mind to go forth. The environment may control you.

Color - Red/Blue

The red vibration indicates on power, stability, order, will and the blue vibration indicates on communication, development, identity and acting. Together they create the color indigo and purple and indicate that you have the power and the communication, the will and the stamina to change and stand up for your actions. You have confidence in yourself, you know your limit and your values, who you are and what you can handle and have a strong identity. You can handle most things, now where the limits are, know what you can realize and how. Maybe a little bit too sure and tough in your personality, you got so much experience to lean on, no doubts, you act.

Astrology

Saturn.

Rune - Raido

Indicates travelling, events and coincidence. You got the possibilities to act from your own power and lust. A rune for adventures - Experience.

Reversed indicates lack of communications skills, both with yourself and with others.

Fox as totem

Indicates that you move quickly, you get pass where no one expect it, you can spy on your opponent by being a part of the environment and thru that get one step before. Fox energy is a kind energy but still a mischievous one and the only time it uses its power to melt in and get what it needs is when it needs to protect the close ones. You're a tricky one and definitely walk your own path, totally convinced that you know best. Strong as an individual and do as it pleases you, live your own life and avoiding responsibility.

8 Strength - Assertion

Meaning

Indicates on inner power, strength and courage. You're willing to take responsibility and realize your dreams and ambitions. You're strong with yourself on all levels, physical, mentally and emotionally. Control is a part of you and all that you handle.

Reversed

Don't know where your security is, you're weak, cowardly and has a bad self esteem.

Color - Red/Indigo

Indicates that the red vibration is power and a security from the ground, the will to stand up no matter the circumstances. The indigo vibration carries on enlightens, the clear minded awareness and the will to look forward. Together they have a power to develop and to stand strong in own identity. You're stable with yourself and your values, you know how to act, what is proper and how much you can handle and in the same time you're a visionary that having a hard time to relax and be in the now. You eager to get forth with a strong motivation and to find a way to express yourself.

Astrology

Uranus.

Rune - Thurisaz

Indicates on self-esteem and strength, and the power of the warrior, inner will and stubbornness. To reach the goal no matter the resistance. Self awareness, a rune for your courage - Trust.

Reversed it indicates anger, and to lack the will to complete what you want to do. Irritation and insecurity.

Leo as totem

Indicates that you're powerful and determine and so aware of your power over others. Maybe a little lazy but active when it's needed. You're independent but you still know and use others when you need them and have a clear communication and expect others to support immediately. You're strong and aware of your identity and that you have to show your strength to not lose respect and with that also not to lose your values. You support others, take the first step on the path and show them how to act to be one step after you.

9 The Hermit - Introspection

Meaning

Indicates an inner strength and capacity to be in the moment. You seek new answer and actions, need to develop and go further and deeper than that. In need of loneliness, to be in peace and quiet. Have plans for the future, to develop even more.

Reversed

Unsecure with yourself, mixed up and unsafe. Afraid of being alone. Don't want to co operate, don't know where you belong.

Color - Red/Pink

The red vibration indicates on power and determination, a strong will and conviction, and also goal orientated. The pink vibration carries on openness and the desire after the totally love feeling, harmony and balance. Together they will provide romantic dreams with a lot of dynamic. But the romance doesn't have to be in a love relation it can also show on the romantic image you have and what you wishes for. You're wayward; often walk your path alone, strong in your decisions, forced by an inner power to realize your dreams and your desire. Having a hard time to be in reality and to see something else than your desire. You often look at the world from your romantic point of view.

Astrology

Neptune.

Rune - Kenaz - Laguz - Berkana - Hagalaz
(four runes on The Hermit, one for each element)

Kenaz

Indicates on a creative force that gives life and possibilities. This is the light in the existence, something that is moving towards and gives opportunities. It shows on your inner force, your motivation to live and act in life.

Reversed it will show that you're not following your inner voice; you have forgotten to believe in yourself and your inner power.

Laguz.

Indicates on your emotions, the flow of life and your intuition. The experiences of feelings and the joy of all origination - flow of life.

Reversed it will show that you're not connected with your emotions. Afraid of experiences and emotional demands.

Berkana

Indicates on the connection with your origin, your safeties. Love, the unconditional, from giving and feeling happiness in what is. Harmony with all around you.

Reversed it will show on a lost feeling, emptiness and fear. You have lost your ground, are lost in reality.

Hagalaz

Indicates on everything that is unexpected. The energy of the mind combined with basic and it's not always in balance.

Reversed it shows that most of all the things around you is in the air, hopelessness and fear of what you can't control.

Owl as totem

Indicates that you're a wise and stable person that has more in your thoughts than someone expects. You know what you want from life and put your goals ahead and let it take the time it needs. Show that you're wise, intelligent and just drift along. You're not in a rush; you just await the right opportunity. A seeker of the mystical, the occult, all that is in the dark of the night, the unseen. Alert and awake, regardless you will take on the experience no matter where you're or when it is. Black or white, it all has something to develop, and the more you learn the more you can create.

10 The Wheel of Fortune - Destiny

Meaning

Indicates on events in life, that all is moving forth or back. You will reach the goals that you have. Feeling the joy and expansion. Opportunities. The feeling of everything falling in the right place. It can also indicate big changes but only for the better good. Also luck and fortune.

Reversed

You're on the right path in life, but haven't finished all that was needed first. You've been too quick and have to start from the beginning, but it will be easier done this time.

Color - Magenta

The vibration of the magenta indicates experience and growth. It has the red, the blue and in that also the indigo and the purple energy within. The main energy from the red creates security, a firm ground and power. The blue have the communication and the awareness of the ego. And the red and the blue as indigo and purple show on a stable spiritual communication. You're both physical and mentally strong and always trust that everything will turn out the way it should be.

Astrology

Gemini.

Rune - Jero

Indicates work and rhythm and that you will harvest what you have seeded. Here are the resources and the expense. The flow of life and the ability to follow the turn outs of life and get the best out of it. A rune for rhythm - Life rhythm.

Reversed it will show that you're lost and don't see the wholeness.

Polar Bear as totem

Indicates that you're "cool" with yourself, well aware of who you are, where your power is and how you should use it. You've got a lot of extra resources and know where to put them. Firm and focused and never give up. You've a strong inner conviction and a spiritual insight about immortality that makes you dare more than others. You're deep in your thoughts and in need of fresh air and wideness.

(11) Justice - Cause and effect

This card has no number, in some decks the number 8 and 11 changes place= cause and effect.

Meaning

Indicates on decisions. Contract, law and order. Agreements, plans and bigger decisions in life. Can also show on marriage, bonds with responsibility.

Reversed

Deals that will take longer time than expected or maybe not even will be as planned. Conflicts. Disorder in papers. Problems with authority. A divorce.

Color - Magenta/Turquoise

The vibration of the magenta has the mystical energy and to know what has been while the turquoise vibration has the knowledge of what will be. The magenta vibration shows on experiences and memories and the knowledge of all aspects in life. The turquoise vibration shows on searching, questioning and a development that can't be stopped. Together they will strengthen a search for balance and a continuation on the positive force and make a decision what you have to leave behind you. You're a deep person that likes to look behind to be able to take the next decision and can have difficulties to devote in to new things before you know the result. You take your time and have an enormous patience, you can have a tendency to live in the past and get lost in old values and with the experience that you got and feel fear within and is afraid to lose control.

Astrology

Sagittarius.

Rune - Nauthiz

A rune for destiny. Past, now and future. Indicates on destiny and own development. What has to be in life for you to move forth? For you, yourself to create your possibilities, and to receive the insights from your environment. Reversed it shows that you're afraid to let go and move on.

Raven as totem

Indicates that you have a magical ability, you can see the unknown, you can create contact with what you need and the contact is there before you need to search for it. A strong sight and the guts to even see what is hidden and that others avoid. Brave, intrusive and persistent to reach your goal and to clean out all the energies. You want the clean force, the magic and to start a healing process to get the target in balance. You're intelligent, sharp-sighted, have control and prepared to offer most of what you got to get what you want. You've got an aura of mysticism.

12 The Hanged Man - Sacrifice

Meaning

Indicates on martyr hood, the resistance to take care of yourself. Difficulties to say No. Weak self-worthiness. Get stuck in a situation that is hard to get out from.

Reversed

Self-absorbed, self-centered in a negative aspect. Makes false moves to get attention.

Color - Purple/Magenta

The purple vibration indicates a spiritual openness, a searching and a development. The magenta vibration indicates knowledge, memories and deeper seriousness. Together they will show that you're both deep and shallow at the same time. It can be a challenge for you to concentrate and you take on too much in most things you get involved with. You look at what was and try to make it better, even if it's not needed. You're a fascinated personality, so deep and a visionary in your appetite, you give double messages, one part of you can be so wise and the other in the world of dreams. You have too much energy that you don't know how to handle and can have problems to focus on one thing at the time. You need stimulation from different angles or you do believe that there is nothing at all.

Astrology

Pisces.

Rune - Mannaz

Indicates on the human being in its growth as a person with earthly experiences. Self awareness, the conscious mind about the meaning of your life and spiritual growth. A rune for humans - Ipseity

Reversed it shows on the loneliness and the unwillingness to like yourself.

Bat as totem

Indicates that you seek the truth and dare to take on the development as it indicates. You don't have to be stuck; every moment gives a new opportunity if you just dare to see it. Shows that you're a survivor, it doesn't matter what will happen, you will simply get yourself in a mood where you will find your power and maybe even more power than you had before. It's easy for you to take on obstacles, maybe they come a little too often and maybe that's a test to see how much you can handle. You should learn to develop your abilities and to see the wholeness of the past and only carry on the lesson and the possibilities instead of what is limiting you.

13 Death- Transformations

Meaning

Indicates on changes, that you're now standing in front of new energies to develop. First you need to clean up the old mess before you can take in something new. Re-organization and new paths in life.

Reversed

Fear of changes, you want everything to be as it always has been. Afraid of everything that is new and unproven.

Color - Red/Green

The red vibration indicates on power and the ability to create whatever you want. The green vibration indicates on harmony and balance, take it easy, rest and find some peace. Together they will create a conflict as well as a companionship with safety and the development of the self. The red gives power to the inner balance and harmony and to a development of what is. You're a warm, deep involved person that gives the most of yourself just because. You're driven by an inner force to improve and make sure everything has the power to continue. You're an intense person and you don't give up until you reached your goal and are prepared to let go of it all to find your truth.

Astrology

Scorpio.

Rune - Ehwaz

Indicates the limit between the earthly and the spiritual. Meditation and transformation. When life shows on a closure no matter that you want it or not. It's time to move forward with your knowledge and your experiences. A rune for death - Spiritual ecstasy.

Reversed it shows on resistance to look at yourself and your part of life.

Snake as Totem

Indicates that you're a master to wiggle you out of peculiar situations, you're are where no one is expecting you and you make sure that they never will see all of you at once, because suddenly you have transformed yourself and changed your skin and even grow an inch or two. You're not afraid of changes, you see them as development, a possibility to grow some more. You like it when it's hot, to relax, had a taste and take the time to digest the new energy. And poor one that dares to get to close, you're so quick to poison them to get what you want.

Flexibility is one of your strong energy, you adjust to the climate. You can linger around most things you want and make sure that everything will transform.

14 Temperance - Purpose

Meaning

This card indicates on temperance, balance, concordance and harmony. A creative liberation, a free will and a happy ground.

Reversed

Unbalance, difficulties to choose, getting in to situations of crises. Take on too much, stress.

Color - Magenta/Pink

The pink vibration indicates on an emotional openness and a will of spirit to believe in the best and to find the visions. Open emotions, romance, happiness and expectations. And the magenta vibration indicates on wisdom, experiences and lust and happiness mixed with seriousness. Together they show on a balanced feeling of right and wrong, the past and the future in an awesome mix. You're in the feelings of warmth, cozy, passionate, romantic and spiritual insights and honesty and a present in the now. You're a person that can be both romantic and open and at the same time a little reserved and stuck in the past, but was it better before? And isn't the last minute as it already is? You can often balance your experience with your desires, you have deep thoughts and big dreams about the future in what can be from what you got now. You're a warm and nice person that knows your own value and you're always in your safe space and don't need any confirmation in who you're and what you do. You surround yourself with a sphere of unconditional love and your sensualism is strong. It's easy for you to evaluate what is important for you and leave the rest without using any energy.

Astrology

Libra.

Rune - Gebo

Indicates karma, the exchange of what you give you will receive. Assets and harmony. A rune for your balance.

Reversed indicates loses and negative exchanges.

Horse as totem

You have extra energy stored inside of you, enormous power that can take you further than anyone else. You live off and with your energy, and that's nothing you think about, your energy, it's just the way it is and you act with power and strength. You're not so good at looking in front of you but you're better to look around you and in that you listen to your intuition to be in the right place where the action is. You can relax for short moments, hey, you even have the ability to stand and sleep just to reload your energy and then you're on the move again.

15 The Devil- Satisfaction

Meaning

This card indicates love to yourself. You know what you want and what you need and you get it. Can have a need for things, money and stuff but also to feel good, to be worthy the things you want. A strong desire and a strong will.

Reversed

Fixated by yourself and your things, both them you already got and the one you wish for. You can use others to get what you want.

Color - Orange/Magenta

The orange vibration indicates lust and creativity, happiness, impulses and the desire after togetherness with all the things that can become of it. The magenta vibration has common sense as a strong energy, memories and experiences that tells what's right or wrong. They two together create a combination of experienced creativity that can concur all that it wants and that know its value from this energy. You're an impulsive person that has gone through a lot, but have common sense and trust your experience and take the decision from that and often go for what feels good at the moment, looking for a kick of joy.

Astrology

Capricorn.

Rune - Inguz

Indicates creative sexual power and energy. With this new creations and the fulfillment of you from an inner force. To reach an inner and outer satisfaction. A rune for the physical love - Sexuality.

Reversed it shows on own destruction, not listen on physical needs.

Goat as totem

Indicates that you're headstrong and walk your own way and letting no obstacles stop you on your way, obstacles is there to be beaten. And nevertheless what kind of obstacles it's there for you to concur. You will never give up until you reach your goal; you will always find something that will take you higher. You're tough, handle most situations and look at obstacles as something that is a development= positive energy. You have a strong survivor will and dare a lot.

16 The Tower - Revelation

Meaning

This card indicates on changes conflicts, difficulty decisions, probably moving or change in work that changes all of your existence. You need to let go of the things you have made on false ground.

Reversed

Difficulty to take changes as they come, they can seem to be drastic but in the long run they will solve your situation. You can easily get stuck in something that will be a hard time to let go off.

Color - Orange/Turquoise

The orange vibration indicates creativity, impatient, rapidity and the will to create and get engaged in what experiences as important. The turquoise vibration is the color for remodeling, changes, new experiences and values and together they show on a creative change and a will to reach and realize all ambitions. You're intense, and need to take everything down to the last molecule and make sure that old events become new ones. You have the will to get everything through that you've got in your mind, and are not afraid of changes, creative dramatically with an enormous life joy.

Astrology

Aries.

Rune - Teowaz

Indicates on courage, the courage to walk alone on a separate path and to fight for what you believe in. A rune for the dark - trust. Here is the power that you sometimes are afraid of to be aware of, still it is needed so that you will not gather too much of limits. Something will come like a storm and sweep everything in chaos and make a new opportunity of what was. Reversed it will show on powerlessness. The fear of changes and to lose control.

Dragon as totem

Indicates that you now can show all of your power and your true you. Dare to use your magical powers and act for your survival. And if it should be any trouble remember that you got your inner glow to blast what isn't worth to exist.

17 The Star - Inspiration

Meaning

This card indicates on visions, dreams that come thru. You dare to dream and make plans for the future. Inspiration, spiritual evolvment and a focused consciousness.

Reversed

Shows that you can get stuck in common daily thoughts and having trouble to see your opportunities. You lose faith in life and to yourself. Inner conflicts about what you will do and should do. Problems to experience new events and happenings.

Color - Orange/Pink

The orange vibration indicate on resourcefulness, an open mind, the will to create and see new visions, to find your inner power through the creativity. The pink vibration indicates on dreams and an open heart, romantic visions and a spiritual contact. Together they show on a strong power to find the origin to inner happiness and your own creative power. You're romantic but still in daily routine, you do the best of your situation and dream about to realize all that you have inside. Great visions that you know you will realize in time.

Astrology

Aquarius.

Rune - Dagaz

Indicates on your will to meet challenges and the unexpected. A rune for the light, the day and - awakening. This is the enlighten, something new has to begin. All limits should be tearing down and you should see the situation in the right light. All the possibilities to do whatever you wish to do, a positive change. Reversed it shows on worrying for new events, to be blindfolded of all the opportunities, confusing.

Spider as totem

Indicates that you're flexible, you like to be on the move, to spin new patterns and build a structure, you're good at creating images and make others see what you do. Probably there is an artist and a visionary for the future living inside you. You're good at keeping it clean around you and like to be in fresh energies.

18 Moon - Imagine

Meaning

This card indicate on strong emotions. Happenings that dominates the life of all emotions. Creation and expression. Inner searching, poetry and meditation.

Reversed

You lose control over your emotions and also your temper. Easy to be heartbroken and hunted by different emotions. A feeling of being unappreciated and to live in reality.

Color- Pink

The pink vibration is for romance, feelings, passion, experience, enchantment, drama and to give it all just by routine and it's all about the powerful feeling that lays deep inside. Take one emotion in time, You're in harmony with a big loving heart, a little naive but totally in your feelings, and in that creative and you give it all in every moment. You love the feeling of giving and also the feeling of taking, you also need approval.

Astrology

Cancer.

Rune - Ansuz

This is the energy of your sub- now- and higher consciousness and the trinity as a spiritual balance. A rune for your spirituality- your inner wisdom. With this energy you have the opportunities to listen to yourself and to know what is right. Inner knowledge, contact with your inner soul, your higher self or a spiritual guide. Reversed it indicate that you're lost and feeling despair. You don't want to get in contact with your inner wisdom, you don't want that responsibility, and you search in the outer and in actions that aren't the things you really looking for.

Swan as totem

The swan indicate that you're a soul with a great wisdom, one with memories from epochs that are lost, you're wise and dreamlike- You see things others don't and you can also use dream magic to create the things you want to fulfill. The swan is the totem that carries on the power of dreams. The totem that helps you to dream, fantasize, to create your goals and visions. It indicates on safeness, independence and also humbleness for partnership. Honesty and faithfulness. The swan knows the truth about dream magic that it's all in the mind and in the power of the dream. It's up to you to catch the dream, to be enough awake to dream away. The swan also indicates on inner beauty, to see far ahead of the illusion, to see the truth and to find the beauty in what the eyes see. The swan helps you to take forth the beauty and the dreamy sides of you and let everyone else see their own illusions. If they have good energy they will also see the beauty, if not they will see only the ugly part of it. To have swan medicine indicate that you can see the opportunities and the visions in everything, because the eye creates the image bases on your dream world.

19 Sun - Bliss

Meaning

This card indicates on harmony and happiness. Material happiness, a good standard and security and above all -bliss. The good fortune to be in the flow of the highest energy. You have all the possibilities, succeed with goals that you have, looking forward for more happiness.

Reversed

Problems in relationships and with family, feeling outside of all, disagreement and conflicts. Despair, fail with what you thought you've been longing for, loss of visions.

Color - Turquoise/Pink

The turquoise vibration indicates wake up calls, a spiritual consciousness of who you're, and a trust that everything that happens at it should be. The pink vibration indicates on spiritual openness, a credence and a being in the now energy. Together they give an unconditional love for life and a spontaneous joy for life. You're a spontaneous person that all the time gets into the most particular events, everything just happens. You give and give, just because you want to, you're free-hearted from your trust that it all has a meaning even when the sun is behind the clouds.

Astrology

Leo.

Rune - Sowulo

Indicates in love, light and life. A rune for the sun with the strong life giving force that gives you the possibility to live in love. Here is also al spontaneity, the love of live and the possibilities to get what you wish. A positive life force that is the strongest and makes everything possible. Reversed indicates on loneliness and emptiness. The feeling of being lost with all your emotions, you can also isolate yourself and refuse to share your needs or happiness with someone else.

Crocodile as totem

Indicates that you've an inner strength that no one can break in the long run. You're so aware of your power and what you can do and if it doesn't work with power it will work with tears. You're quick, intense when you want something and don't letting go of your grip. If the possibility exist your will just roll over and take a new grip and for each time your grip will be stronger, it's not worth to fight against you. You also enjoy just drifting away and lay down watching, and whatever or anything will just pass you and you will be alert even if you seem to be just floating around.

20 Judgment - Awareness

Meaning

With this card it indicates that you get a new way of thinking. You will be aware of things you haven't recognized before. An awakening. Strong bonds with family and traditions could be with children, maybe a baptism, engagement, or marriage. You feel a new gratefulness for life. Important decisions to take.

Reversed

You're afraid of living in what's changes around you. You don't want to have responsibility all by yourself or have to make decisions. You can feel anxiety and get into situations of panic, maybe even feel a fear of death. You feel the seriousness in all the moments in life.

Color - Turquoise

The energy of turquoise is a spiritual vibration that indicate on knowledge of the spiritual world, the search for the truth, after life and evolving. Turquoise is also the energy for changes, it aim for the truth and on that road all the things that aren't good for the growing is being destroyed. Turquoise is also the color that and crystal that the old Egyptians and the North American Indians used as a protection against evil. If you're in balance and life by your path of life then the turquoise will help you to concur what is yours and find the truth. If you're on the wrong path it will be like a whirlwind and show you what is wrong in a more dramatic way. The turquoise can change the energies and reject all the things that doesn't benefit you will turn another direction and that in all areas, work, love, financially, health, they can't handle the energy of the turquoise. With turquoise in your aura things will change no matter you want it or not. You change your mood, your temper and things doesn't fit in like before in your life. You will see more of what really are instead of being blindfolded.

Astrology

Virgo

The energy of taken care of life, to comfort and take responsibility but with criticism and resentment of what no longer needed. To look for all the details to get the wholeness. It's the energy of tearing it all apart to start all over again.

Rune - Fehu

Indicate in connections and joy. It indicates on fulfillment and success in life. All the opportunities to create a security by your own, to feel at peace and harmony within. A rune for wholeness. Reversed it indicate on obstacles, that you having troubles to achieve. A fear of getting along and succeed with your abilities.

Butterfly as totem

Indicate that you take life as it is, you have the inner trust to pass to different stages in life just because it is like that, and you trust that everything happens for a reason. You change form, create different phases in life and get more beautiful for every change. Use the butterfly at moment of changes, maybe if you're going through a period of fast or changes of diet, all the periods of growth and when you want to expand to show who you really are, at least for the moment. Indicate that you're mature enough for a process of changing, to let go and start all over, to dare to see yourself as the one that you're and make decision how to act and when and then in what role. You're an individual that can go deep inside and develop from your own darkness, through every process you find a way to become more of who you are.

21 The World - Completion

Meaning

this card indicates harmony, that you have reached your goals and feel like you have succeeded in life. You feel a great pleasure in your projects. You're happy and satisfied, have balance and can realize mostly anything with your ambitions. You have also reached the end in something that you have been engaged in and feel pleased.

Reversed

Shows that you don't take responsibility for yourself and your actions. Leaving things undone.

Color - White

The white vibration is the clear light, the light that has all the other vibration within, its fulfilled and the bright light. You're open and spiritual, honest and genuine, totally aware of yourself and in that a safety that makes you don't condemn anyone for their path of life. You take responsibility for yourself and letting all others do the same.

Astrology

Taurus.

Rune - Eihwaz

This is a rune for Yggdrasil - The tree of Life - and it's indicating on the growth of your soul in wholeness and experiences are the keyword. This is a force inside of you that shows on the growth for you in what's meant to be for you. Reversed it shows that you have lost the trust to yourself, afraid of being alive. You have got stuck in a tie-up, you need more time to take action and be able to act in your present state.

Squirrel as Totem

Shows that you're alert and quick in your actions, act directly and can make the most incredible turn around in life. Suddenly you're somewhere else rather where you're expected to be. You can be an expert in forecast, you know what you need in the future to be able to get through any situation and you need some time alone to make plans. You've got charm and can get away with a lot just being you.

/Ylva

Ylvas word about the deck.

I do hope that you will find some joy from my deck. If you like colors, totems and astrology it will tell you a lot, but even if you don't, I believe that you will see exactly what you need to see, and if you don't know the meaning yet, you will learn in an easy way. Prisma Tarot has 78 cards just like an ordinary Tarot deck, and the symbolic on each card is basic but then with the three areas of colors, totems and astrology. Tarot has been my biggest interest since 1974 and my favorite deck through the years has been Rider Waite. I have created a deck called - Crystal Wolf - in 1998 and some of the cards in Major Arcane are similar, that deck had also crystal on it (painted).

Color is my second favorite subject, I love colors and I like to use the word - color magic -. Colors indicate on vibrations and you can read these energies like patterns and behaviors, expressions that we all are in always.

If you're down in energies you probably are under the effect of red, orange and yellow, if you're in your emotions, it can be the green vibration and if you're mentally you can be in the indigo vibration.

Many years ago I was asked to write a text about colors from black, red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, purple, magenta, turquoise, pink and white and also combine two colors and I did, and guess my surprise when it turned out to be 78 different combinations. And here they are, on one and each of the cards.

I work with aura readings and I also have workshops in the subject of aura, chakras and colors and a distance workshop online. I have written a book about totems and made a deck with the 78 totems, and the descriptions here are from my book.

Unfortunate you don't find so much about astrology, that subject is more for you that has that interest or will learn what every planet or signs have for indication.

Soon my workshops both in Tarot and aura will be translated to English. But now, put the cards on the table and create a magic colorful moment.